usalem Post

and cards

MK so sum probe:

HE JERUSALEM

OLUME LXV, NUMBER 19494

Ben-Gurion Airport expansion approved

Hillary Clinton's second term

Page 7

Markets bullish on Egypt

Money Magazine

| Index | _ |
|--------------|----|
| Business | 8. |
| Crossword1 | 1 |
| Foreign News | .5 |
| Movies/TV | 11 |
| Opinion | .6 |
| Sports | 10 |

Sharansky salutes Sakharov

On the second day of his trip to Moscow, his first visit since he left Russia 10 years ago, Minister of Trade and Industry Natan Sharansky gestures as he sits under busts of Russian human-rights activists at the Andrei Sakharov museum. Story, Page 12. (Remer)

Swiss students launch collection for Holocaust survivors

By BATSHEVA TSUR

A group of high-school stu-dents in the Swiss capital of Bern has taunched an immediate fund-raising drive for Holocaust victims, saying that time is running out as their goverument decides on reparations to the victims.

"With intense shock and agitation, we've learned that even today, 50 years after the end of World War II, there are still victims of the Holocaust that live in distress and have never received any form of reparations for the suffering they endured, the stu-dents said in a statement released to the Swiss press over the weekend.

"We maintain that we must no longer delay this and that now is the time to express our solidari-ty with these people," the state-ment added. "It seems patently unfair that the victims should be forced to wait until the members of the Swiss government commission discussing the issue] complete their investigation." The pupils have decided to devote any funds they are able to raise to Amcha, the Israeli organization for psycho-social

Continued on Page 4

Netanyahu may visit King Hassan

By DAVED MAKOYSKY

There are efforts underway to arrange a visit by Prime Minister Binyamin Netanyahu to Morocco next month on the way back from a trip to the US, but it remains unclear whether this will be successful, diplomatic sources say.

Netanyahu is tentatively scheduled to meet US President Bill Clinton on Thursday, February 13. Palestinian Authority Chairman Yasser Arafat is due to visit Washington on Friday, February 21. Egyptian President Hosni Mubarak and Jordan's King Hussein are also scheduled to meet Clinton next month, but the exact dates are not yet known. Morocco's King Hassan has boycotted Netanyahu until now, refusing to even speak to him on the phone. However, after the Hebron pullback agreement was reached, he sent an open message of congratulations to the premier via the Moroccan Press Agency. The US has pledged to improve Israel's Arab regional des in the aftermath of the Hebron accord, triggering speculation that its ambassador in Rabat, Marc

Continued on Page 4

-177-022-2278-Call Free THE JERUSALEM POST Subscription Sales and Service

Clinton: Talks with Netanyahu will focus on Syrian track they will. I heard that President the previous administration, but

By DAVID RUDGE, LIAT COLLINS, ARIEH O'SULLIVAN and HILLEL KUTTLER

President Clinton said yesterday that bringing Israel and Syria back to the negotiating table will be a "major focus" of bis February 13 meeting with Prime Minister Binyamin Netanyahu, but that resuming talks is dependent on "the willingness of the parties."

"What our experience has been ... that wheo both parties want to make peace, oo matter how far apart they seem, we find a way to get there. If they're not sure it's time to make peace, oo matter how close it seems to an outsider, we don't seem to be able to bridge the gaps," Clinton told reporters in the first press conference since his

There will never be a comprehensive peace in the Middle East" until an Israeli-Syrian deal is achieved, he said.

Netanyahu expressed optimism yesterday over the prospect of finding a "bridging formula" to enable resumption of the peace talks with Syria and to conclude

"I will be giving President Clinton a number of ideas on how to resume the negotiations with Syria but I have to make it clear that we can't force Syria to come to the peace table," Netanyahu told reporters during a visit to the Haifa area yesterday. "If Damascus does not want to negotiate peace we are in no position to force it, although we hope

Assad said a few weeks ago that peace is even more important for Syria than for Israel. We will put that to the test very shortly because I believe that it is relatively easy, with goodwill, to find a bridging formula between the two sides and enable each of them to come with their positions to the negotiating table."

Beilin: Withdraw from Lebanon now, Page 2

Netanyahu reiterated that the government is committed to upholding agreements signed by was not obligated to anything that had not been written. What was said or not said in hypothetical negotiations between the sides does not obligate governments, otherwise it would be impossible to hold negotiadons, said Netanyahu. He was responding to a question regarding the prospect of resuming peace talks with Syria without some prior commitment by Israel to withdraw from the Golan

"In the case of Syria, there is one framework [for negotiations] -Madrid - although 1 don't rule out the possibility of other formulas

Continued on Page 4

Bar-On investigated, files complaint against ITV cooperated fully with investiga-

and EYELYN GORDON

Lawyer Roni Bar-On, at the center of the "Bar-On-for-Hebron" scandal allegedly involving MK Aryeh Deri and other government members, was summoned for questioning at the National Fraud Squad headquarters in Jaffa yes-

Bar-On said he plans to file a criminal complaint against Channel 1, its director-general Mordechai Kirschenbaum, head of news desk Rafik Halaby and reporter Ayala Hasson. He intends to sue the three for slander, he

He was the first to be summoned following evidence given to police by Hasson on Monday, who still refuses to disclose her sources. Bar-On, who merely said "Good morning" to reporters on entering the police station, arrived shortly

Roni Bar-On (Ossendryver/Israe) Suns

Around 15 minutes later, lawyer Yitzhak Molcho, Prime Minister Binyamin Netanyahu's adviser, arrived to give evidence regarding the case, while lawyer David Shimron, also one of Netanyahu's advisers, arrived to do the same shortly afterwards. None of the three was questioned under caution. Shimron and Molcho are considered very close to Netanyahu.

According to Hasson's story. Shimron, Molcho and Deri's lawyer Dan Avi-Yitzhak mei separately with Netanyahu in January, to voice their objections over Bar-On's appointment, reportedly saying that the appointment would bounce back as a boomerang."

Molcho and Shimron were reportedly asked if they were aware of any such alleged deal between Netanyahu, Bar-On and Deri. Bar-On resigned as attorneygeneral just 48 hours after his appointment.

After four hours of questioning, Bar-On told reporters that he tors and answered all questions.

Shamgar agrees to head A-G status team, Page 3

In the complaint he filed with police, he emphaocally denied meeting with Deri to arrange the alleged deal whereby be would be appointed attorney-general and in return would ensure that Deri be granted a plea bargain in his ongoing trial. Since Bar-On's official complaint accuses Hasson, Halaby and Kirschenbaum of willfully slandering him, police are now legally entitled to launch a separate criminal invesogation, questioning FTV personnel as suspects.

Continued on Page 4

| | | | | | M | | | | A STATE OF THE STA |
|---------|-----------|---------------|-----------------|--------|----------|-----------|--------|----------|--|
| h | | | | | 11 | | | | |
| | | try form toda | - naturn it | to T | he Jerus | salem Po | st and | particip | ate res! |
| Fill ou | t this en | try form toda | gift certificat | es fro | m Kitan | Center, G | v priz | e winne | rs |

1st Prize: NIS 700 value, 2nd Prize NIS 200 value, 3rd Prize NIS 100 value.

The more you read The Post...the better your chances are to Be A Winner!

THE JERUSALEM

I subscribe to The Post

Only original entry forms accepted, no photocopies, fax copies or separate sheets of paper. Campaign valid through February 21, 1997. Entry form will not be held over from previous week draws. Jerusalem Post employees, their families and distribution agents are exempt from participating.

"Be a Winner" Contest, The Jerusalem Post Circulation Dept.

The shop I buy The Jerusalem Post from: —

Netanyahu: We're still working to free POWs

Prime Minister Binyamin Netanyahu yesterday reiterated Israel's obligation to seek the safe return of missing IAF naviga-

Netanyahu was asked by reporters during a visit to Haifa about recent reports regarding international efforts to ascertain the faue of Arad and secure his return. "We are committed to returning him to Israel, as well as our other missing soldiers and prisoners," said Netanyahu.

"We are following the various reports that come in. We relate to Ron Arad as somebody who is alive and who should be returned safe and well as obliged under international conven-returned safe and well, as obliged under international conven-tions."

David Rudge

Tiberias woman bitten by fox

A Tiberias woman on her way to work was bitten by a small fox yesterday in a parking lot downtown. The 40-year-old woman said the fox jumped on her and bit her. A passerby armed with a pistol shot the fox and wounded it, while others - fearing it was about to attack again - beat it with socks. The municipal veterinarian who arrived at the scene said the young wolf was dying anyway when it attacked. The fox's body was sent to the veterinary lab in Afula to check whether it was rabid. The woman's wounds were treated and she was given a rabies shot

None hurt as bomb explodes near SLA troops

A large roadside bomb was detonated alongside South Lebanese Army troops while they were on operaconal duties in the security zone's western sector near Barasheet yesterday.

There were no casualties and Hizbullah has claimed responsibility. IDF gunners responded by firing at suspected terrorist targets

In a separate incident, late on Monday night, an SLA outpost in the zone's eastern sector came under light weapons fire. There were no casualties and IDF gunners returned fire.

A similar incident occured Sunday night, when gunmen fired anti-tank rounds and machine guns at another SLA post in the zone's eastern sector, without causing any injuries or damage. The Amal Shi'ite movement claimed responsibility for the attack - the first by Amal in that area for many years.

David Rudge

Army to hand over bodies of two terrorists

The IDF will today hand over to the Palestinians the bodies of two terrorists killed by Israeli troops, including one of the kid-nappers of Nachshon Waxman. The handover is reportedly part of a deal made in exchange for information which led to the discovery of missing soldier Ilan Sa'adon.

Hassan Abbas and Salah Jadalah, both natives of the Gaza Strip, are to be handed over to their families at the Erez Crossing. Abbas was killed by a Border Policeman and armed civilians during a shooting spree in Jerusalem's Nahlat Shiva promenade in October 1994. Jadalah was killed by Israeli commandos during a botched attempt to rescue kidnapped IDF soldier Nachshon Waxman in the same month.

The bodies will be taken from their graves at the cemetery for enemy soldiers near the B'not Ya'akov Bridge in the north, the Arieh O'Sullivan

Beilin: Remove IDF from Lebanon

By ARIEH O'SULLIVAN

Labor Party leader candidate Yossi Beilin said yesterday that Israel had to immediately and unilaterally get out of south Lebanon. But the head of IDF intelligence rejected the idea, saying conditions were not yet ripe for such a move and doing so would expose residents in the north to suffering.

"We have turned into hostages in Lebanon," Beilin said. "Our soldiers have turned into sitting targets for Hizbullah. We need to get out of Lebanon unilaterally with the aid of a third party.

Speaking at a seminar at Tel Aviv University's Jaffee Center for Strategic Studies, Beilin said that a written agreement with Beirut would never be allowed by Syria, the de-facto ruler in Lebanon, because Damascus wanted to use guerrilla attacks against Israel and the IDF as a pressure tactic. He also questioned Syria's seri-

Syrian President Hafez Assad feared normalization, an Israeli requirement for returning the Golan Heights.

NEWS

OC Intelligence Maj,-Gen. Mosbe Ya'alon, on the other hand, spelt out the IDF intelligence assessment that Assad had not given up his aim of getting back the Golan. For the moment, Ya'alon said, Assad prefers peaceful negotiations, but did not rule out military action if talks became deadlocked.

"The return of the entire Golan Heights is [Syria's] primary strategic aim. It sees the peace process as the preferable way for reaching this aim, particularly since it has achieved, it claims, an Israeli obligation to fully withdraw from the Golan Heights under certain conditions." Ya alon said in a rare public address.

Ya'alon was in effect echoing the assessment of his predecessor Maj.-Gen. Uri Saguy. "Damascus is aware that it will have to pay for the territory with security arrangements and normalization, but it is not prepared to make compromises which appear to its leadership as a blow to its honor and its security," Ya'alon said.

Beilin, meanwhile, said Damascus was blocking any Israeli withdrawal from south Lebanon because it used Israeli occupation there as a legiomization for their troops presence in Lebanon. "We need the guts to get out of there," Beilin said.

But Ya'alon said a unilateral withdrawal. was a mistake. To do so, Israel required at least an obligation of responsibility for the area by Lebanon and Syria and for south Lebanon to be handed over in an orderly fashion to the Lebanon Army.

"I can promise that if there is a unilateral withdrawal without an agreement, life in the north won't be without suffering from Hizbullah and Palestinian terror," Ya'alon said. "The question from a military point of view is where do we prefer to confront them when civilians are the target? I propose not to withdraw," he said. "The Syrians are the key.

They are using Lebanon as a trump card."
But Bellin said the international border could be like a "zipper," which could be opened for IDF action and then closed in times of tranquillity.

T was involved in the negotiations 12 years ago on setting up the so-called 'selfdeclared security zone. I don't think there was any person at the table with me who thought we'd still be there 12 years later." Beilin said.

Beilin also said Israel had to stop pointing to Iran as Israel's arch enemy and actually seek to renew relations with Teheran. He said Iranian need for investments in its retarded gas industries could be used as a pressure tactic led by the United States to get Iran to abandon its efforts to reach nuclear capability.

Hussein and Arafat meet in Jordan

Palestinian Authority Chairman Yasser Arafat embraces Jordan's King Hussein on his arrival at the Royal Palace in Amman yesterday. Arafat was on a courtesy visit to see King Hussein who underwent minor knee-surgery three days ago, " (Reman)

Hamas leader Abu Marzook decides to stop fighting extradition to Israel

WASHINGTON (AP) - Hamas leader Mousa Abu Marzook, jailed in the US, is to give up his effort to resist extradition to Israel, the State Department said yesterday.

We understand that Mr. Abu Marzook intends to withdraw bis legal challenge to the order finding him extraditable," spokesman Nicholas Burns said.

"Any such legal decision is of course within Mr Abu Marzook's rights. It's entirely his own choice," Burns said.

Abu Marzook made that decision because he does not feel that he will get a fair trial in the US, said a friend of bis who has been involved

By JUDY SIEGEL

The head of the Israel Space

Agency (ISA) yesterday signed its first cooperation agreement with the European Space Agency (ESA). The ESA is the third largest space agency in the world, with a total annual budget of $4

The agreement allows Israel to be among the 25 countries in the billion.

with his legal defense. Abu Marzook is wanted in Israel on murder and conspiracy charges for financing and plauning terror attacks.

Abu Marzook has lived in Virginia for 15 years, but is not a US citizen. He was detained in the summer of 1995, when reentering the US.

Immigration inspectors realized his name had been added to a list of suspected terrorists. Abu Marzook's friend said the world entitled to receive

European satellite transmissions

(from the ERS-1 and ERS-2 satellites) for its own use and for distributing to others. These images provide pictures in any weather and visibility, contributing to the accuracy of weather forecasting, sea and coastal research, and the location of mines, as well as to archeology and agriculture.

Abu Marzook

in Israel. In Gaza, a top Palestinian Authority official said yesterday that Abu Marzook "has not given up his fight against extradition to serving prison terms.

out new suicide attacks if Abu

Marzook stands trial

Hamas leader was not afraid of going on trial PA Attorney-General Khalid alin Israel, where many Qidrah said Abu Marzook was willing to leave the US "on condi-Hamas activists are tion that he comes to the An Abu Marzook trial Palestinian territories." Al-Qidrah in Israel could cause said the PA would do everything it could to bring Abu Marzook to the new complications in PA, but had not decided whether the peace talks. Hamas has threatened to carry he would be put on trial in a Palestinian court. However, US Consul Edward Abington said sending Abu Marzook to the PA areas instead of to israel appeared out of the ques-

"Israel will never agree to something like that," Abington said. Mount.

Islamists claim excavations undermining Al-Aksa Mosque

BY JON DWINAMUEL

Islamists held a press conference in Jerusalem yesterday to condemn tunnel works by the Antiquities Authority they said were undermining the foundations of Al-Aksa Mosque on the Temple

Najah Dkeirat, head of the Islamic Heritage Association, warned that "the diggings could cause an explosion in the Moslem" world."

The opening of the Western Wall Tunnel triggered an outbreak of Palestinian violence four months ago which rocked the peace process and Moslems are concerned by any Israeli digging under or near the Mount.

Sheikh Raed Salah, the mayor of Umm el-Fahm and head of the Israeli Islamic movement, displayed photographs showing recent plastering which be said showed that Israel was engaged in work directly under Al-Aksa which was causing cracks. The tunnels, which are not new, have been closed with cement and stones, but Salah said that they can be easily moved and anyone can Antiquities Authority director Amir Drori, supported by Tourism Minister Moshe Katsav, denied Monday that Israelis were tunneling under the Temple Mount. He called the charges "lies without any foundation.

No member of the Wakf, which has authority for the Temple Mount and Al-Aksa, was present at the Jerusalem press conference, although the Wakf spread the alarm after the Western Wall

Tunnel was opened.

Mobammed Nusseibeh, the Wakf spokesman, told The Jerusalem Post that "the whole situation is unclear. But when the first tunnel was opened people became very suspicious of any kind of Israeli excavation under or near Al-Aksa. There is nothing to stop stop anybody passing through the tunnel opened two months ago," where he said, Moslems have expressed fears that extremists might plant explosives.

He said he had personally not seen any damage he could attribute to recent Israeli excavations, but the works on the tunnel opened four months ago has definitely affected building above it.

Palestinian Authority Religious Affairs Minister Hassan Tahboub also seemed to distance himself from the claims of the Israeli Islamists, saying that, "We object to diggings because they could lead to violence."

Salah, Dkeirat and Hassan Khatib, editor of the Islamic newspaper, Sawt al Haq, said that the cemetery on the Haram also had been damaged. They demanded that all work be stopped, that there be an investigation to see where the tunnels lead, that an Islamic defense committee protect the mosque, and that the mosque be MKs Abdul Malik Dahamshe and Taleb a-Sanaa of the United Arab List toured the Mount yesterday. They did not comment on the alleged damage, but A-Sanaa said afterwards that the fact that the work is taking place during Ramadan following other Israeli violations in Jerusalem arouses suspicions.

Beilin terms Palestinian state essential'

By JON IMMANUEL

Anyone who thinks it is possible Anyone who thinks it is possible to solve the refugee problem without granting Palestinian statehood is wrong, Yossi Beilin, the Labor Party's leading theoretician of the Oslo accords, said yesterday.

Speaking at the Jaffee Center forum, Beilin said that statehood for the Palestinians was essential to resolving the refugee problem.

to resolving the refugee problem because a state gives the refugees a feasible alternative destination to Israel since they would be Palestinian citizens.

"Whoever thinks you can pre-vent both the right of return to Israel and the right of establishing a state is wrong.

The state will not be up to the 1967 borders. This is understood by the Palestinians and us," he said in an oblique reference to an understanding with Mahmoud Abbas, the chief Palestinian architect of the Oslo accords. The Palestinians have always downplayed the degree of Abbas's agreement with Beilin.

However, Beilin took issue with Meretz léader Yossi Sarid who said on Monday on ITV Channel Onc's Popolitika that Beilin's modified document produced in conjunction with Likud MK Michael Eiran would not be accepted by him or by the Palestinians. "My good friend Yossi Sarid said nothing about the agreements we reached with Abu Mazen [Abbas]... The Palestinians understand that for a state they have to pay a price." The issue was no longer territorial compromise but how much territorial compromise. Here, Beilin considered the one-year delay in the third IDF redeployment from September 1997 to August 1998, to be a setback. He described the delay - something the government considers its most significant negotiating achievement - to be dangerous. The extended period of negotiation "exposes us longer to violence by those who think they can thwart the process so long as no agreement has been reached." He warned that further talks like the Oslo talks must be conducted

"away from the spotlight." Meanwhile, chief Hebron negotiator Saeb Erekat sent a message to his counterpart Yitzhak Molcho protesting Israel's removal of the Jahalin beduin from land they have occupied since 1950 which has now been absorbed by the largest settlement, Ma'aleh Adumim.

Talks are to resume tomorrow in Ramaliah on civil affairs issues still remaining from the interim accords. Last night, US Secretary of State Madeline Albright phoned PA leader Yasser Arafat, and expressed her commitment to the peace process, Israel Radio reported.

lesset mar

final Wel

-- (m) 35. 5. 3 · Lize-

SOCIAL & PERSONAL

THE WERKLY MEETING of the English-speaking Jerusalem Rotary Club will take place loday at 1:00 p.n. at the YMCA, King David Street. Mr. Jeff Barak, editor of The Jerusalem Post, will address the

The Sons of Zion Organization, the management and workers in Israel and the US

European, Israel space agencies sign deal

mourn the passing of

AZARIA RAPAPORT 5"

a valued and active member of the management, and share in the sorrow of Ruti, Hanani, Taii, Yaei and the family.

With deep sorrow we announce the passing of NORMA ROTHMAN (née DUBB)

Dana and Gabi Rothman, Allie, Erika, Mark and Fonda Dubb Shiva at 34/12 Rehov Borochov, Ra'anana (Tel. 09-743-5377)

US: Nazi plunder must be checked before returned

Eisenstat: Report due next month

By HILLEL KUTTLER

WASHINGTON - The US opposes the distribution of $68 million plundered by the Nazis from the central banks of Europe until it can determine if any of it belonged to Jews, US undersecretary of commerce Stuart Eizenstat said Monday night.

World Jewish Congress officials wrote to President Clinton two months ago requesting that those funds be given to Holocaust victims and the US is "looking at" trying to bring that about, Eizenstat said at the Jewisb Community Center here.

"We've told Britain and France we'd object to the return of that money to the original countries until we've determined if any of that money is non-monetary gold," said Eizenstat, who heads the American efforts to account for the funds and property seized from Jews during World War II.

The US. Great Britain and France form what is known as the "tripartite commission" responsible for determining the fate of the $68 million in "monetary gold" stolen by the Nazis and deposited in Switzerland

About SFr 250 million have already been returned since the end of the war to the central banks that were looted.

Eizenstat said the 11-nation commission he chairs on the US role in tracking Nazi assets will release its report late next month. But efforts to release the minutes of the tripartite commission's deliberations have been unsuccessful, he said.

Eizenstat spoke just hours after Swiss ambassador Carlo Jagmetti resigned after urging Bern to prepare for "war" against Jewisb organizations seeking to establish the truth about Swiss bank accounts held by Holocaust

This shows the level of intensity, emotion that this issue has generated," Eizenstat said of the resignation. "This is not a free lunch. Everyone realizes we've gone too far down the road to rum back.

Eizenstat is due to leave today for Switzerland to further US efforts on the dormant accounts. He said he believes that his upcoming move to the State Department - where he is to become the assistant secretary for economic, business and agricultural affairs - will help advance the cause.

Property Annual Period Period

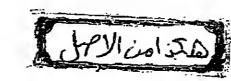

Glatt Kosher Chinese Restaurants ◆ JERUSALEM ◆ TEL AVIV ◆ ASHDOD Now open! FASHIONABLE NEW TEL AVIV RESTAURANT 32 Viranivaku St. Tel: 03-544 4486 • Office: 03-546 8264. Fat. 03-544 4765 Listen to Arutz 7, 711 and 1143 AM. 105 FM

Coming to Jerusalem Exhibition and sale of hand-made ethnic carpets: Persian, Turkish, Caucasian, Uzbekistan and others Discounts of 20%-30%

Special offer: Baluche Carpeta NIS 420

3 - 8 February, 1997 at The Windmill Hotel, 3 Mendele St., Jerusalem Advice on carpet repairs and maintenance Eli Sasson Carpets

46 Sen-Gurion St., Herzliya Tel: 09-9555097, During the exhibition 050-206430

derusage)

mo

eilin ter

alestink

state

essentia

.

(see of James

River of the same of the same

Secretary of the second

pal and the

A. 17.

Cappe 1988

the Ser

Secretary of the second

Acres 18

188 2 1 to 18 1 1

A - 100 0

All Ville

₩A 477.1

7/2 7 412

-grantite in the 22 112

44 S.

44.3

4-157

M2.4 1!

A

1950 man and the second

* 1

العقيد

....

Charles and the control of the

₹₹₹₹

Contract to the second

A4

100

in brief

Former minister Ne'eman's trial begins today

The trial of former justice minister Ya'acov Ne'eman begins at Tel Aviv Magistrates' Court today. The indictment against Ne'erman is signed by State Attorney Edna Arbel. The police investigation of him was launched at the order of then attorneygeneral Michael Ben-Yair.

The indictment revolves around an affidavit Ne'eman gave the Supreme Court in response to an appeal against bis appointment as justice minister, regarding charges he tried to convince witness Martin Brown not to cooperate with the police investigation of MK Aryeh Deri, and later tried to get him to recant his version of events. The indictment claims that Ne'eman gave the court false information regarding when his ties with Deri began, and tried to hide his relationship with Deri's lawyer, Dan Avi-

Air poliution in Tel Aviv drops

Air pollution in Tel Aviv has dropped 200 percent since 1993, the municipality amounced yesterday. However, the municipality added that pollution in the city and the Dan Region is still high, and additional steps must be taken to correct this.

The municipality cited the increased use of catalytic converters and low-sulphur fuel as reasons for the drop.

"The Song of Peace" ruled not political

"The Song of Peace" is not a political song, the High Court of Instice ruled yesterday, and convinced petitioners to withdraw their petition to the court that the song not be played on Army Radio or at events sponsored by the defense establishment. The petitioners said the song carries a political message and lowers soldiers' motivation by making light of war.

Actor Shraga Harpaz released on ball

Actor Shraga Harpaz, who is suspected of fraud, forgery and theft, was released on NIS 20,000 bail yesterday by the Tel Aviv Magistrate's Court. Harpaz and accountant Yitzhak Tavoshi were arrested last week on suspicion of embezzling over a million shekels from Hashmira, the company where they both worked. Harpaz told the court that as soon as be realized he had broken the law he had turned to his attorney for help.

Histadrut petitions High Court for Haifa Chemicals against a National Labor Court ruling constituted a serious m ruling upholding Haifa Chemicals' decision to cancel its collective work agreement. The company's management announced that it was unilaterally canceling the agreement in September, touching off a lengthy work dispute which has resulted in the plant being shot down for the past six weeks.

The Histadrut then sued the company in the Haifa Labor Court, which ruled on January 20 that the decision to cancel the collective agreement was invalid. The court said that management had not acted in good faith, and that some of management's statements about the company's worsening financial situation - which were the ostensible reason for its cancellation of the agreement - were false. The following day, Haifa Chemicals eppealed this deci-sion to the National Labor Court, and the latter scheduled a hearing for January 22 at 5 p.m. At 10:35 p.m. on January 22, the national court issued its decision overturning the regional court's carriage of justice, because the Histadrut was given no time to prepare its case. Its request that the hearing be postponed was denied solely because several of the judges were in a hurry to leave the country for a professional conference in England, the petition charged. Since the plant is shut down at the moment anyway, the petition added, the existence or lack thereof of a collective agreement would not have any immediate implications. financial Therefore, there was no reason not to grant the postponement, it

Furthermore, the petition said, the national court made several factual findings in its ruling which contradicted those of the regional court, despite the fact that it examined only part of the evidence which was before the lower court. Thia perversion of justice casts serious doubt on the Histadrut's ability to consider the labor courts an alternative to strikes and other industrial action, the petition added.

Knesset marks World Animal Welfare Day sands of sheep that were trans-

By LIAT COLLINS

The plight of the bumble hen was discussed in the Knesset plenum yesterday when the House marked World Animal Welfare Day which falls this Welfare Day which falls this Friday. MK Avraham Poraz (Shinni-Meretz), who initiated the Anti-Cruelty to Animals Law, chose to relate less to domestic pets and concentrate on the need to treat farm animals humanely.

"Although it is the fate of most of them to end up on a plate, that is no reason to abuse them first,"

Poraz mentioned specifically he said. the cramped conditions in many cowsheds, the veal industry, the forced feeding of geese for goose liver, the destruction of egglaying hens after they cease to be productive, and the killing of male chicks almost as they

Unfortunately, in many places the male chicks are simply thrown into a sack one on top of the another and left to die by suffocation," he noted. He also mentioned the transport of animals to slaughter. Many hens suffer broken wings and legs dled, cramped crates.

Poraz also noted the thou- ly met with MKs. when transported in poorly hanported by sea from Australia before Ramadan, many of which died on the journey. Yael Dayan (Labor) mentioned the cases of animal fights – particularly dogs and cocks – which are carried ont despite the law. She called on Agriculture and Environment Miniater Raphael Eitan to ensure the laws protecting animals are enforced. She made special mention of the mass poisoning hy local municipalities. Avraham Herschson (Likud), chairman of the Knesset's Environmental Caucus, said e society must protect its animals in return for the protection they afford people and noted that the large-scale destruction of cats in the Middle Ages preceded the Great Plague because it enabled the numbers of rats to increase uncontrolled. The Environment Ministry and Israel Veterinarians Association is sponsoring a month-long campaign of neutering dogs and cats at half-price. The campaign is aimed at preventing the births of unwanted litters which end up on the streets. Members of the country's animal welfare groups attended the MK Bronfman alleges 'heartless discrimination' by Interior Ministry

By LIAT COLLINS

A woman at the end of the process of converting to Indaism is facing deportation at the request of the Interior Ministry despite the fact ahe has recommendations from Chief Rabbi Eliahn Bakshi-Doron and her adoptive family

Ludmilla Semolina from the former Soviet Union is currently studying at the Machanayim ulpan and conversion program and she now only has to appear before the rabbinic courts to complete her conversion.

'It's completely clear that her intentions are entirely pure and there is no reason not to let her complete her studies and appear before the rabbinic court on conversions. The heartlessness of the Interior Ministry has reached new heights," said Yisrael B'Aliya faction chairman Roman Bronfman. Bakshi-Doron's letter says: "l have heard from reliable people that the aforementioned lady [Semolina] is true in her intent to join the Jewish People and 1 ask that all possible aid be afforded Batya Carmon, in charge of the ministry's visa department, sent a letter to Bronfman stating: "A per-son who arrives in Israel as a tourist from those countries whose citizens tend to migrate to Israel is not permitted to stay here for the purpose of conversion. We ask that they leave the country and file from there [their country of origin]

the relevant requests which will be thoroughly examined, and those

be able to enter the country and undergo the process."

Bronfman, who raised the issue in a parliamentary question to be answered by Interior Minister Eli Suissa, said there is no reason to deport Semolina since she has almost completed the process and is clearly a genuine case. He also complained about the discriminatory tone of the letter mentioning "those countries whose citizens tend to migrate."

Interior Ministry Spokeswoman

There is no choice but to deport someone who is here illegally. It might be that this case is genuine but the law is very clear on the fact that someone who is in Israel illegally must be deported. Lately we have witnessed an incredible rise in the numbers of people asking to convert purely to immigrate and gain the material benefits of immigrants and to work here. We have to be strict about applying the law to avoid it being exploit-

Women tell ministry: End the same-name game

By ESTHER HECHT

Efrat Eventov had a fine Hebrew surname when she married Ronen Krumholtz last September and she wanted to keep it. So she didn't have it changed in her ID card or on her

But when the Jerusalem couple left on their honeymoon two months later, a clerk at passport control stopped her.

"Are you sure your surname is Eventov?" the clerk asked her, "You appear on our list as Krumholtz."

The clerk let the couple leave as planned, But Eventov was aware of a February 1996 amendment to the Names Law: 1956 according to which the Interior Ministry may not change a person's surname unless asked to do so. Upon her return, with the help of the Israel Women's Network, the women's rights lobby, she complained to the ministry.

Meanwhile, the IWN learned of more cases like Eventov's.

Yesterday IWN legal adviser Rachel Benziman complained to Interior Minister Eliahu Suissa that the ministry had not formulated any regulations to implement the amendment that allows a man or woman who marries to choose a sumame at any time and then notify the marriage registry. The ministry has continued changing women's marry as if there were no amendment, and marriage registrars don't inform prospective brides and grooms of the amendment, nor do they have appropriate forms, she The ministry's spokeswoman said it would respect the law and that every person's request to keep a former surname would be honored. Meanwhile, however, it has not been possible to stop changing women's surnames automanically upon marriage, she said, "because we're switching to a new computerization system for the population registry." She could not say when the switchover will be completed. Nor could she say when Eventov will get her good name back.

The Histadrut petitioned the High Court. In its petition, the Histadrut Shangar to head public commission argued that the national court's ruling constituted a serious missagnet in National Labor Court. on status of attorney-general

Reuma Weizman, the wife of the president (left) and Tamar Kollek, the wife of former Jerusalem mayor Teddy Kollek visit a special exhibit at the Jerusalem Municipal Gallery of paintings by Effi Rimon (right) and other residents of the Ilan hostel for severely disabled young adults.

By EVELYN GORDON

Former Supreme Court president Meir Shamgar has agreed to head a public commission on the status of the attorney-general, Instice Minister Tzahi Hanegbi announced yesterday. Hanegbi decided to set up the commission in light of the nproar surrounding the government's original choice of Roni Bar-On as attorney-gen-eral even before Bar-On reaigned. The public argument over the appointment was largely possible hecause there Former Supreme Court president, Meir Shamgar (Joel Fishman)

Over the next few days Hanegbi will be approaching other jurists, politicians, and public figures to ask them to sit on the commission as well. The commission will examine questions such as how the attorney-general should be appointed, what criteria a candidate for this position should meet, how long he should serve, under what conditions the government can terminate bis tenure early, and what the attorney-general's responsibilities should be. Currently, the law only states lines regarding this position, that the attorney-general is appointed by the cabinet and serves at the cabinet's pleasure, and that he must be someone who is qualified to be a Supreme Court justice.

One question which bas often been raised about the attorneygeneralship is whether it is appropriate to have one person filling two essentially contradictory roles: That of the government's legal advisor who is presumed to be acting on the govemment's bebalf, and that of head of the prosecution who must be completely indepen-

חברת החשמק

Senior 'Ma'ariv' official questioned under caution

By RAINE MARCUS

are virtually no legal guide-

David Ronen, Ma'ariv's security officer and deputy director of the Hachsharat Hayishny insurance company, was questioned under caution by the National Crimes Squad for several hours yesterday in connection with conspiring to break into buildings to plant hidden cameras and tape recorders to dig up information to use against Yediot Aharonot.

Ronen is currently on trial in Tel Aviv's Magistrate's Court, together with Ma'ariv publisher Ofer Nimrodi, on charges of commissioning wiretaps on senior Yediot personnel and others, and paying hush money to private investiga-tors Rafi Friedan and Ya'acov Tsur (who turned State's Witness in the Police say that according to their evidence, Ronen conspired to unlawfully break into the home of a senior Yediot reporter to plant hidden cameras there in an attempt to uncover the journalist's intimate activities, allegedly for blackmail purposes. According to sources and evidence, Ronen's alleged plans did not come to fruition.

Police have had this particular evidence for some time, but in view of new information which reached them recently, detectives who investigated the media wiretapping case are now probing whether Ronen conspired to break into other premises to install hidden cameras and microphones.

The trial continues today.

THE JERUSALEM

02-531-5610

02-531-5621

02-531-5628

DIRECT LINES TO DEPARTMENTS

ADVERTISING DEPT.: 02-531-5608 Jerusalem: 02-531-5639 02-531-5640 Representatives: 02-531-5642

NEWS EDITOR: 02-531-5657/8 SUBSCRIPTIONS:

ARCHIVES:

ACCOUNTS:

03-639-0333 Tel Aviv: EDITORIAL DEPT.: 02-531-5613

02-531-5605 IN JERUSALEM EDITORIAL DEPT. 02-531-5634

israel electric

The Israel Electric Corporation wishes to purchase the following goods/services:

Cost of tender documents, inc. VAT DESCRIPTION (non-returnable) NIS 936 Emergency Diesel Generator (EDG) System 583356 Request for Technical Proposal - First Stage Request for Technical Proposal - First Stage

Perticipation pre-conditions:

1. The contractor shall have experience in Israel in the delivery, installation and putting into operation of emergency diesel generator systems, of similar complexity, including diesel engines of approximately aimilar power.

2. The contractor shall have workshops in Israel suitable for the execution of repair and maintenance works, both mechanical and electrical. CE-701 and electrical.

Last date for submitting proposals: March 9, 1997, at 11 a.m.

Conditions applying to all tenders (in addition to the pre-conditions applying to particular tenders):

tenders):
a. A guarantee of 5% of the bid total, in the form of e private check, should be attached to the bid, except for first stage tenders requesting technical information only.
b. Participation in e tender is also subject to complying with the preliminary conditions detailed in the Tender Regulations 1993, Para. 6 (a) 1, 2, 3 (i.e., registration as required by law, compliance with mandatory specifications, and the holding of the permits required by taw for public bodies).
c. If e bidder does not attach any particular document or permit, license or any other required material, as required by the preliminary conditions, the Electric Corporation may allow the bidder to aubmit the missing material, within a period of time to be set by the Corporation. The tender documents mey be obtained, Sunday - Thursday, et the Market Research and Tenders Dept., 11 Sderof Pal-Yam, Haifa, between 9 a.m. and 12 noon, on submission of e receipt, showing payment (non-returnable) of the cost of the documents, into the Corporation's eccount at the Postal payment slips for making such payments are obtainable at the above eddress, Tel. 04-861-

Before purchasing the tender documents, they may be reviawed on Sunday -Thursday, 9 a.m. - 12 noon, at the offices of the Market Research and Tenders Dept. at the above address, and at the Sales noon, at the offices of the Market Research and Tenders Dept. at the above address, and at the Sales Unit, 90 Rehov Yigal Allon, Tel Aviv, Ashdar building, Entrance Gimmel, Floor 1, Tel, 03-565-4679, 03-

Bids should be submitted in a seeled envelope, and be placed in Tenders Box. No. 1 in the Pal-Yam building, Haifa (address as above) by the last date for submitting bids, as stated above.

No undertaking is given to accept the lowest or any bid.

NOTE. In appropriate cases, the Electric Corporation will give preference to suppliers, in accordance with the Tenders Regulations (Preference for Locally Produced Goods, and Obligation to Extend Commercial Cooperation).
The Electric Corporation retains the right to negotiate, where this is legally permissible.

FASHION S

Stoyanov gave the ruling Socialists a mandate to form a new government yesterday, prompting opposition leaders to say their foes now bore full responsibility for leading Bulgaria out of crisis.

The leaders of Bulgaria's three major trade unions made good on their pledge to organize a general strike if the Socialists were given a chance to govern. The unions announced that workers would stay away from their jobs across the nation beginning today.

The Socialists are blamed for rampant inflation, a plunge in living standards and failure to institute economic reform. Their government resigned last month, spurring a political stalemate inten-sified by 21 days of street protests demanding early elections.

The constitution obliged President Petar Stoyanov to offer the helm of government to the Socialists because they are the largest party in parliament. Stoyanov asked the party, the former Communists, to turn down the offer to help clear the way for urgent reforms and new elections.

Bnt Nikolai Dobrev, now premier-designate, made clear yesterday that he would go ahead and form a government, promising it would be broad-hased.

"I have no intention of serving strictly party interests," Dobrev said. "I'll work for the people and strikes, Dobrev warned that "confrontation at this very moment is deadly for the country."

Emerging from the talks between

Stoyanov and all the groups repre-sented in the national assembly, Yordan Sokolov, parliamentary leader of the main opposition Union of Democratic Forces, said the onus for easing the crisis now lay with the Socialists.

"It's their move now," Sokolov said. "May they realize the huge responsibility that they take if they decide to use their mandate."

The Union's leader, Ivan Kostov, said his party was ready to end its 21/2-week boycott of parlia-ment in order to participate in adopting emergency economic measures and forge a compromise, the BTA state news agency report-ed. But he confirmed the Union would press for elections.

"If there is the will and consensus, parliament can endorse in a short term the necessary laws and early elections be called." Kostov

Stoyanov, who took office last Wednesday, had warned Monday that his proposal for compromise marked the last chance to overcome Bulgaria's deep crisis.

Stoyanov had proposed Monday that the Socialists and all other parties in turn refuse to form the

be able to form a caretaker "government of consensus and change" they all could support, and elections could be called, probably for May.

Stoyanov leaves on his first official visit to Brussels yesterday to signal a desire for closer ties with the European Union and NATO. Before leaving, Stoyanov is to meet British Foreign Secretary Malcolm Rifkind.

Stoyanov had proposed that in the next 10 days, Parliament adopt legislation establishing a currency board that would impose spending discipline; authorize a caretaker government to negotiate with international lending institutions for new loans, and adopt a program to rein in hyperinflation, guarantee a minimum living income until spring, and continue economic reform.

The economy is a mess. Inflation topped 310 percent last year, and the the currency, the lev, has plunged to half its worth at the beginning of the month.

Yesterday, the lev dropped to a new low of more than 1,000 to the Average monthly wages have fallen to the equivalent of $15 and pensions average about dirs 5. There are not enough reserves in state coffers to cover the $1.5 million due on the foreign debt of $10

Carmel tunnel project enters new phase

Education and Culture Minister Zevulun Hammer on a tour of an exhibit on the history of Zionism at the Zionist Archives in Jerusalem, yesterday. The exhibit contains more than 20 million documents, pictures, and posters, including some from the school that Hammer attended.

By DAVID RUDGE

Childhood memories

The proposed $150 million Haifa tunnel project - aimed at cutting a route through the heart of Mt. Carmel and link southern and northern access mutes while bypassing downtown - entered a new phase yesterday.

The five companies competing to win the bid to construct and operate the proposed toll road were yesterday officially invited to submit their tenders for the project.

The ceremony was held at Haifa's new International Exhibition and Convention Center in the presence of Prime Minister Binyamin Netanyaht, Haifa Mayor Amram Mitzna and leading

Netanyahu apparently enjoyed the break fram the rigors of office, especially recently, but could not refrain from commenting wryly that he had become "accustomed to opening tunnels." He also expressed his intention to return as prime minister for the official opening of the tunnel, which is scheduled to be completed by 2002.

Mitzna said the tunnel project was unique in terms of the concept of financing the construction through private investment, as well as the engineering details.

The company which wins the tender will cover all the construction costs and recoup its investment by charging drivers fees for using the four-lane road. After a period of 25-30 years, when costs have been covered and profits yesterday, said the excavations of made, the road will be handed back to the state under wbat is known as a "Build, Operate and Transfer" program.

Mitzna said four separate tunnels would be bored through the heart of Mt. Carmel, with electronicallycontrolled entry and exit points at the southern access to the city, near the exhibition center off Rehov Freud, at Neveh Sha'anan and the Checkpost junction in the north.

Before work could even start, however, the Antiquities Authority, carried out a rescue excavation near the proposed southern entrance to the tunnel, which uncovered a large ancient settlement known as Castra.

Authority chairman Amir Drori, who also attended the ceremony the Byzantine period settlement had been completed.

The site itself will be destroyed by the tunnel construction work, although Drori said they hoped that parts could be saved and restored. Netanyahu said the tunnel project was part of the government's plans for creating better road infrastructure that would provide faster links between development towns and communities in the periphery with city

After bolding a press conference in Haifa, the prime minister traveled to nearby Kiryat Motzkin where he was awarded honorary citizenship of the bayside suburb town and inaugurated a school named after his brother Yoni,

British plan to give Nazi footage as warning against Ireland violence

BELFAST (Reuter) - The British government said yesterday it may use film footage of anti-Jewish violence in Nazi Germany for a television advertisement warning against dangers of sectarianism in Northern

"We are not making a country-to-country parallel but perhaps suggesting that there may be common areas of vicious behavior," said Andy Wood, director of information at Britain's Northern Ireland Office.

For almost 30 years the province has been torn by violence by rival gunmen seeking to unite it with Ireland or keep it British. In the middle of last year fresh clashes broke out when minority Roman Catholics, many of whom want a united Ireland. demonstrated against annual parades held by majority pro-British Protestants.

Since then a wave of sectarian arson has intensified. Churches, halls and other property used by the Catholic Now Britain is considering issuing the advertisement which would intersperse film of pre-1939 persecution of Jews with contemporary footage of troubled Northern Ireland. Images of slogans being daubed on Jewish-owned shops, blazing synagogues and book hurnings would figure in the production, part of a two-year television advertising campaign aimed at undermining the extremists on both sides and winning backing for British security forces.

The important difference is that under the Nazis it was state-sponsored and state organized whereas...(here) it is clear that burnings seem to be the work of people who hold their fellow citizens in deep contempt," Wood said. Officials said government ministers would view any final version of the advertisement before deciding whether to screen it.

Northern Ireland Secretary Sir Patrick Mayhew said there had been "a sharp downturn" in the mood in Northern Ireland and there was now a valid comparison to be made between church burnings in the province and pre-war Germany.

"Some people will say 'Oh, that's shocking. Oh it's alarmist, it's extremist. We haven't got as far as that yet'," Mayhew told BBC television.

"No, we haven't got as far as that. But I wonder how many people have in their mind the unspoken word, 'yet'."

MKs, educators discuss religious-secular rift

By LIAT COLLINS

The Knesset Education Committee yesterday held a three-hour meeting on religious-secular relations during which 33 speakers including MKs, school principals, and educators addressed the issue. However, not one representative of the haredi sector was invited to present that community's view.

The meeting was initiated by MK Shmaryahu Ben-Tzur (National Religious Party) who described it as "the first shot in the process of bridging between religious and secular." He said the religious-secular divide is the country's main problem and said the source of the problem stems from the two sides not knowing based on the Madrid framework,"

CLINTON

Continued from Page 1

"What's important is to renew the negotiations with the knowledge that there is no agreement.

because if there was agreement

there would be no need for nego-

Defense Minister Yitzhak

Mordechai told visiting US

Senator Daniel Inouye yesterday that Israel does not want US or other foreign troops on the Golan

Heights to help monitor any peace agreement with Syria. "We know bow to defend ourselves by ourselves with the generous aid which we have received for many years from the US," Mordechai

Meanwhile, Mordechai has been authorized to concentrate all negotiation efforts on the Syrian front. He has held a number of meetings with those who were involved in the talks under the previous government, including former ambassador ltamar

"We want to enter into negotiations and hold a real dialogue with the Syrians," Mordechai said

Four Likud MKs yesterday said they would not rule out a partial withdrawal from the Golan

after the meeting with Inouye.

sentiments off the record.

said Netanyahu.

riations."

told Inouye.

Rabinovich.

each other. He called for meetings between teachers and students in state and state-religious schools.

His call was repeated by committee chairman Emanuel Zissman. Education Minister Zvulun Hammer said meetings between those interested in getting to know the other could take place in different frameworks including during teacher training programs. He promised to develop different types of meetings, mutual hospitality programs and extra-curriculum groups and activities as soon as possible.

Zvi Zameret, a member of the Shenhar Committee which examined religious education in secular state schools, said: "The situation today is very serious and if things carry on like this it will be the downfall of the State of Israel." He proposed a program in state schools to be called Sheli - an acronym for the Hebrew words for Integrating Jewish Studies.

Rabbi Yoel Bin-Nun called on the religious public "to abandon the power struggle... to realize the 'miracle' of the unity of the People

Elhanan Glatt, the director general of Buei Akiva yeshivas, said all the yeshivas would stand behind the subject of bringing religious and secular communities closer.

Rabbi Menachem Froman suggested "matchmaking" between pairs of religious and secular schools including joint teachers' meetings, activities and studies.

Major taunted over House defeat

LONDON (Reuter) - British Prime Minister John Major yesterday shrugged off a surprise defeat in parliament as a miscount and said it would not change bis tactics ahead of a general election due by

But opposition Labor Party leader Tony Blair taunted Major, accusing him of being desperate to hold on to power. "Why doesn't the prime minister call a halt to what is...a fired out government?" Blair told par-"If they're so confident why doesn't the prime minister just for once stop the dithering, name the day and call an election," he added to cheers from members of his

The opposition took advantage of ministers being away at a cabinet brainstorming session at the prime minister's country residence to stage a late-night ambush in the House of Commons, the lower chamber of parliament, over govemment education plans.

Labor claimed a knife-edge victory with 273 votes to the government's 272. If all MPs are in parliament, the roling Conservatives and the combined opposition have 322 votes each.

Major, accusing Labor of "smdent union" politics, said he understood the government had not been defeated. Education Secretary Gillian Shephard said earlier there had been a mis-

"We understand that last night the vote was in fact a tie, which under the procedures of the House (of Commons) would have meant that the government didn't lose it, because in those circumstances the Speaker...votes with the government," said Shephard. Labor said it was not clear what had happened but, under parliamentary rules, the result must Leader tells Albanians 'abandon violence'

TIRANA(AP) - President Sali Berisha, in his first public appearance in two weeks of unrest, yesterday urged Albanians to abandon violence for a "serious and fair" solution to disputes over failing get-richquick schemes.

Berisha spoke to supporters of his Democratic Party on Tirana's main Skanderbeg Square, but the crowd of about 3,000 people was much smaller than those Berisha usually draws. That could be a sign of public discontent with the Democrats, who are publicly accused of profiting from the funds, thought to be pyramid schemes. The Democrats deny any profit.

SWISS Continued from Page 1

support for Holocaust survivors. Amcha director John Lemberger said yesterday. The news about the establishment of the fund was given wide coverage in the Swiss media, he said.

Despite sporadic incidences of antisemitism in Switzerland following the recent developments with regard to missing Jewish bank accounts, the pupils expressed their conviction that

HASSAN Continued from Page 1

Ginsberg, is among those seeking to arrange such a meeting. In the past, meetings between Hassan and Israeli leaders were organized by the monarch's Jewish adviser, Andrei Azulai, and Morocco senior security official, Gen.

people throughout Switzerland would support their humanitarian gesture. "We are firmly convinced," they said, "that the vast majority of Swiss feel an identification with the Holocaust victims and will express this with their generous support. These victims are mainly elderly people who must be helped [immediately.]" At a news conference in Bern, the high school pupils said they felt the youth of Switzerland were more objective about the issue than their parents' generation since they did not experience the war. They also noted that they

Abdelak Kediri. Regarding other Moslem leaders, Netanyahu is expected to meet Indonesia's Foreign Minister Ali Abdullah Alatas during the premier's trip this week-end to Davos, Switzerland, where he will be attending the World Economic Forum. Yitzhak Rahin visited Indonesia a few years ago and Israel has longstanding but quiet ties with the country.

were not, and would not be. involved in the question of the missing funds and lowe our allegiance only to humanity."

Lemberger said that the youth first heard of Amcha when the Swiss government gave the orga-mization a SFr 500,000 ($400,000) donation last October. He said similar humanitarian aid for the survivors had previously been received from Holland and the European Commission. "I don't know the extent of the funds the pupils will be able to collect," Lemberger said, "but it is the gesture that is important."

While in Davos, Netanyahu wili also meet Mnbarak, their first meeting since last July. While that meeting was marked by a conge-nial atmosphere, acrimony soon broke out as Mubarak accused Netanyahu of reneging on a Hebron pullback, causing ties to Netanyahu will go to Rome where he will meet with Italian officials itry. min sec. : upand see Pope John Paul II.

Heights. Two of them, Michael Kleiner (Gesher-Likud) and Ruby Rivlin, are considered hawkish in their policies and both voted against the Hebron agreement; the other two are Yehuda Lankri (Gesber-Likted) and Meir Sheetrit. The MKs were responding to an initiative by Israel Radio which contacted them to ask their opinions. The reporter said other Likud MKs had expressed similar

"If reaching peace with Syria will strengthen us and strengthen our durability, reduce the international pressure on us and will allow [us] to reach security achievements and recognition of our security and national needs regarding the Land of Israel and Judea, Samaria and Gaza, then 1 have no doubt that this is important," said Kleiner.

Rivlin, an old-style Revisionist, does not rule out a withdrawal from part of the Golan Heights on the grounds that it is not part of the Land of Israel. He compares the situation to the Camp David Accords which resulted in withdrawal from Sinai as part of the peace agreement with Egypt.

Meanwhile, the Residents Committee expressed surprise yesterday over comments by the four coalition members. "We are shocked and dismayed to hear such upsetting comments. which once again raise our apprehension, coming fram members of the coalidon," said leading residents committee activist Marla

Van Meter. The GRC invites MKs Rivlin and Kleiner to come and see with their own eyes whether the Golan Heights is part of Israel or not. Both men will see the archaeological remains of Jewish life here from the time of the Bible, from the Second Temple era, the Mishna and Talmudic periods, and the early Zionist anempts to settle the Golan at the end of the 19th century and the beginning of the 20th century." GRC leaders met yesterday with Third Way party leader Internal Security Minister Avigdor Kahalani, who assured them that his position regarding the Golan was as firm as the basalt rock of the region.

BAR-ON

Continued from Page 1

As such, Hasson, if questioned under caution, may exercise her right to silence or may cooperate fully with police, which may include disclosing her sources.

"The slandernus allegations published against me constitute a criminal offense and oblige police to bring the offenders to trial," said Bar-On. He also asked police to "concentrate on investigating those who have committed offenses against me and not to waste time on an investigation based on gossip, nor to give in to Channel I, which is trying to cover up for itself by biding bebind journalist/source confi-

Shimron said on his way in to the police station that he is convinced that this is a serious inquiry and that he would cooperate fully. "I am doing my duty as a citizen," he said. All three were questioned sepa-rately. National Investigations chief Cmdr. Sando Mazor said that the probe was being conducted "as it should be" but refused to go into further details. Others who can be expected to give evidence to police this week include Justice Minister Tzahi Hanegbi, who has expressed his willingness to be questioned, the prime minister's director-general Avigdor Lieberman and others. Prime Minister Binyamin Netanyahu yesterday expressed the hope that the police inquiry into the affair would be conducted speedily and would get straight no trend towards trying to get to the truth,

"This is the police inquiry that I called for. If the investigation will a police investigation? be efficient, speedy, without prejudice, without politicization and called Netanyahu's comments an attempt to pressure the investiga-Internal Security Minister Avigdor Kahalani said yesterday that so far, the police have found no evidence to back up the Channel 1 report. His statement, made to the Knesset Law

Committee prampted an angry response from Dedi Zucker

(Meretz), who wanted to know people or gossip, and will go straight to the truth, I will be the first to praise it. I was the first to call for it," Netanyahu said. Last night, Labor's reaction team

bow Kahalani knew this. If the minister is asking questions of the police, Zucker charged, that constitutes political interference in the investigation.

Kahalani indignantly denied this, saying he had oot and will not interfere with the police's work. Kahalani also said he was oor comfortable with the idea of an Israeli prime minister being questioned by the police. "[We] should examine whether there aren't other tools to use in conducting the preliminary inquiry, before there is evidence, because there is not yet any evidence," he said. Jerusalem Mayor Ehud Olmert confirmed last night he is likely to face police questioning. "I do not believe there was any deal, and I was certainly not part of any negotiations" he said. "I can understand the prime minister's desire to order a police investiga-tion but if there is no corroboration of what has been said on radio and television, why is an investigation necessary? Does this mean any time there's something on the news we have to start

David Rudge and David Harris contributed to this report.

france is fid's must

and country

coovince the world that Chechen people have, are, and will defend their independence will all acknowledged defeat.

the Caucasus mountains.

the means at their disposal,"

Yandarbiyev told reporters as he

. But Moscow, worried for its own stability and concerned about other restless ethnic minorities, has a strong hand against Chechnya, which is surrounded by Russian territory on three sides and backs relations with any nation that rec-recovering from pneumonia, called a meeting of his top-level Consultative Council to discuss the results of the poll yesterday.

Yeltsin admits sending troops to Chechnya was one of his biggest well into his second term.

Maskhadov as leader.

It could be one that haunts him

People in Grozny, the devastated Chechen capital, voiced mixed emotions over the prospect of recognize us, we're people too, like Portugal, Holland, we're not monkeys," said another. "With Maskhadov as president every-

"Now they (Russia) will have to ognizes Chechen sovereignty.

Moscow bas threatened to sever

In Moscow, Yeltsin, who is Russian leaders began to view

But Maskhadov says he is no

Maskhadov said he felt the the soft spoken Maskhadov as a man open to compromise during less of a secessionist than Basayev or acting president Zelimkhan

Yandarbiyev, who was expected to Kremlin had turned against him but insisted he would press on with his efforts to turn de facto autonomy into full sovereignty, something Moscow rejects.

"We have had our independence from Russia since 1991 and all that now remains is for other countries, including Russia, to recognize

Maskhadov said his first priority would be to give Chechnya's million or so people a chance to recover from the war, m which tens of thousands died and hundreds of thousands lost their homes. He promised to crack exceed 70 percent and international observers said the vote was managed to hold truly universal, democratic elections. This should

UN says plight of Turnout in the election may

"Despite our...difficulties...we down on lawlessness.

that," he told a news conference.

finish third in the election.

peace talks last year.

Maskhadov, who forced Russian troops out of Chechnya with a combination of guerrilla warfare and shrewd diplomacy, claimed a sweeping victory yesterday in its presidential election.

"I expected it," a clearly delighted Maskhadov told reporters at his farmhouse home outside the capital Grozny after early data on the polling indicated he would win over 50 percent and avoid the need

Chechen demands for independence. But Moscow still bolds strong cards in its efforts to hang artillery colonel, who led Chechnya's guerrilla army to a stunning victory in the two-year

war, chided rebel hardliner Shamil

Basayev, 32, who seemed set to finish a distant second, for running

But he promised to work with Maskhadov's victory may be any of his former allies. "Basayev can come and be my comrade

some comfort to Moscow after the humiliation of military defeat.

Basayev would have been a nightmare for the Kremlin, which wants expressed concern yesterday over

200,000 Rwandan refugees trapped in the heart of the jungle amid fighting between rebels and Zairean

Many of them are malnourished and are wandering further from assistance as they seek safety from the combat in the Zairean hinterland, eastern Zaire, home to an estimated

40,000 refugees, now lies in the war zone, the UN High Commissioner for Refugees (UNHCR) said. "UNHCR is very preoccupied with situation in eastern Zaire, particularly about the camp at

Shabunda," UNHCR spokeswoman

Christiane Berthaume told a news

A makeshift camp at Shabunda, in the agencies said.

The 45-year-old former Soviet on to the tiny landlocked region.

The result will add weight to for a second round.

a dirty campaign.

again," he said.

Maskhadov claims victory in Chechen poll

3 footage.

violena

Leaders Albunia * aband Vindent.

65 3.2.

B. All

6.47-7

.. 40----

. . . .

to glaster

150 00

...

~5%

4× # 1

Alexander of 9- 3-2-6

the second second second and the second % ## 3 F=

most of all located near the frontline," she added. "Shabunda is really in a war zone." The refugees have trekked hundreds of km west through the bush after ethnic Torsi rebels overran their camps in Zaire late in 1996. Another 600,000 Huns opted to return home Gandhi's ashes taken on final pilgrimage

CUTTACK, India (Renter) - To the cry "Long live Mahatma Gandhi", the great grandson of modern India's founding father yesterday took his ashes out of a bank vault on a final pilgrimage to

Bank of India in the eastern city of Cuttack, carrying on his head a reddish wooden box containing what he said were his great grandfather's ashes.

About 1,000 onlookers sang songs and chanted as the chief minister of Orissa state, J.B. Patnaik, placed garlands around Tushar Arun Gandhi's neck and the box, which was placed on the back of

The vehicle drove three km through crowded streets, with Tushar Arun Gandhi walking behind, to Gourishankar Park where bundreds of people, including disciples of India's apostle of non-vio-lence, awaited his remains.

"This is a great sight," said Annapurna Moharana, 70. "Thanks to Tushar Gandhi, Gandhi's ashes have been taken ont of the locker.

Bot how many Indians today believe in Gandhi?"

After a fast and much media attention, Tushar, an open truck with two police guards.

Tushar Arun Gandhi emerged from the State to Rwanda.

GENEVA (Reuter) - UN agencies There is no road to Shabunda and humanitarian aid must be transported across a river after being flown in on small planes, which have difficulty landing during the rainy season.

Refugees at Shabunda were moving in small groups toward Punia, about 100 km to the northeast, according to UNHCR. "We fear the movement will accelerate," Benhianme said.

"They have stayed in Shabunda because despite everything we have been able to bring them aid and relief. But if they go further, we will have even less chance of reaching

Marie Heuze, spokeswoman for the UN Children's Fund (UNICEF), said roughly 6,000 refugees were in another 11,000 came through on Saturday on their way further west.

"It is very difficult to being aid to this earny because it is isolated and "The population is extremely mobile and it is extremely difficult to bring them relief," Henze said of

"There is no doctor in Punia and the health situation is worse than in Tingi-Tingi (180 km south east of Zaire's eastern bub of Kisangani),"

Rwandan refugees worsens

she added. "The situation is extremely serious." There are some 25-30 new cases of cholera each day in Tingi-Tingi, the largest camp which holds some 120,000 Rwandan refugees, according to UNICEF.

The cholera death toll stands at three but 10 children under the age of five are dying each day at a single nutritional centre, mainly of diarrhoea and malaria, Heuze said.

"These are diseases very linked to malnutrition," she said.

The World Food Program has only been able to bring in 50 tons of aid a day to the region, roughly half the amount needed for the total of 200,000 refugees at Shabunda, Tingi-Tingi and Amisi, according to the Geneva-based UNHCR.

-The Hutus fled Rwanda with their leaders in fear of reprisal for 1994's genocide of minority Tutsis and Hotu moderates, after which Tutsis swept to power.

Sadako Ogata, UN High Commissioner for Refugees, will begin a mission to Africa's Great Lakes region on February 6. Her first stop is in Kampala for talks with Zairean officials.

Arun Gandhi woo control in November of the box.

which had lain in a vault in the bank since 1950.

thers to be kept io a museum let alone a bank locker," he said in oearby Bhubaneswar city earlier yesterday. "Which is why I bad to battle it out."

Gandhi was shot dead by a Hindu fanatic on January 30, 1948, five months after India, spurred by the apostle of non-violence, woo independence

by 45 cm by 50 cm and bears the inscription "It claims that the box contains Gandhi's ashes a

Yesterday evening, the sealed wooden box was to be placed on a podium in a special railway carriage, which would then leave on a 19-bonr train ride through four states to the banks of the mighty Ganges, the Hindu religion's most sacred river.

Allahabad city on January 30, the 49th anniversary of the assassination of the Mahatma.

The ashes were to be immersed in the Ganges at

The box contains an urn which measures 45 cm

But some state authorities bave called the

from Britain. He was cremated in Delhi.

contains the ashes of Mahatma Gandhi.

"No Hindu will ever like the ashes of his forefa-

Serbia opposition forms parallel gov't

BELGRADE (Reuter) Serbia's opposition coalition formed a parallel government in a major provincial town yesterday, raising the stakes in a volatile dispute with the ruling Socialists over annulled elections.

The Zajedno (Together) coalition swore in an opposition town council majority in a street ceremony iu Smederevska Palanka after police prevented them from entering the punicipal building along with 230 supporters.

Inside. President Slobodan Milosevic's Socialist Party (SPS) convened its version of the new town council with a leftist majority which Zajedno says was obtained by fraud.

Smederevska Palanka, 80 km south of the capital Belgrade, was among 14 Serbian municipalities where opposition victories in local elections last November were nullified by the Socialists on grounds of unspecified "irregu-

Zajedno has staged 10 straight weeks of street protests since, its cause boosted by factfinders from the Organisation for Security and Cooperation in Europe who verified that the opposition had legitimately won the vote.

But the Socialists have admitted defeat in only four towns while blocking change in the others with litigation or by staging more elections, which were boycotted by Zajedno. Police have also begun beating opposition activists.

Zajedno said its move in Smederevska Palanka was based on results of the November 17 elections in which it won 26 of 49 seats. A state-influenced court later ruled the Socialists had captured 25 seats and Zajcdno 24.

Police cordoned off the town hall and said they were authorised to allow only 24 deputies to

Rebel shooting interrupts Peruvian police show of force

.LIMA (AP) - Despite Japan's in a telephone conversation yespleas for restraint, Peruvian police commandos marched to martial music outside the Japanese ambassador's residence and provoked guofire from leftist rebels holding 72 bostages

Aslan Maskhadov speaks to reporters yesterday after the first results in the Chechen elections were made public.

The commandos, wearing black berets, ducked and scattered during the shooting, which followed hours of police maneuvers outside the diplomatic compound.

Shortly before the incident. Japan's Prime Minister Ryutaro Hashimoto had appealed to Peru "not to go too far" and to think about how the training exercises might affect the hostages' mental Hashimoto again urged restraint speaker from a window.

terday with Peruvian President Alberto Fujimori, who called to inform him of negotiation efforts. We understand the need to tighten security around the residence, but we ask that the Peruvian government exercise sufficient caution so as not to bring about an unexpected situa-tion," the Japanese Foreign Ministry quoted Hashimoto as saying. It did not say how Fujimori responded. Early yesterday, police again blasted marching music from speakers set up outside the residence. Tupac Amaru rebels responded by singing a revolu-tionary anthem through a loud-

Police have stepped up maneuvers outside the compound in the past two weeks, prompting the rebels to accuse them of trying to provoke a confrontation to justify storming the compound.

The shooting was at least the sixth time rebels have fired shots. In the past they've said the shots were warnings to police to keep their distance.

The commandos taunted the rebels, repeatedly rolling troop carriers past the compound entrance and pointing machine guns at the building. Some officers shouted and made obscene hand gestures toward the residence before the shooting broke out, sending them scattering for

China rebukes US on human rights report, Hong Kong

rebuked the United States yesterday for issuing annual reports critical of Beijing's human rights record, saying they interfere in China's internal affairs and are often untrue.

The US State Department's latest human rights report is expected tomorrow and will reportedly say that Beijing has silenced all critics of the govcriment and ruling Communist

The administration has criticized Beijing's human rights record in all its annual reports. At a twice-weekly briefing for reporters, Chinese Foreign

BEIJING (AP) — China Ministry spokesman Shen ebuked the United States yes- Guofang said China has found that the reports were "often inaccurate and even discriminatory in parts."

"We believe that the United States' human rights reports ioterfere in China's internal affairs to a very large degree," Shett said.

He denied that China has any political prisoners and said the United States "should talk with China about human rights and not be confrontational. Chinese Premier Li Peng, in a

Sambatyon

Essays on Jewish

Thirty-three essays by Michael Shashar on Jewish holidays, written from a religious Israeli perspective, providing a new by the sources. Essays are accompanied by 24 color findings in Eretz Israel and from Medieval Jewish art dimension beyond that offered illustrations from archeological

Sambatyon

Holidays

Congressmen — including Rep. Curt Weldon, a Pennsylvania Republican, and New York Democrat Gary Ackerman - also called for communication, saying contacts and dialogue are better than containment and confrontation, the state-run Xinhua News Agency reported.

meeting yesterday with six US

Li said differences between countries were natural since they have their own social systems, cultural backgrounds and levels of development.

JEWISH THOUGHT

France is world's most visited country

MADRID (Reuter) - France was the most visited destination in the world in 1996 but the United States was the top earner from international tourism, the World Tourism Organization said yester-

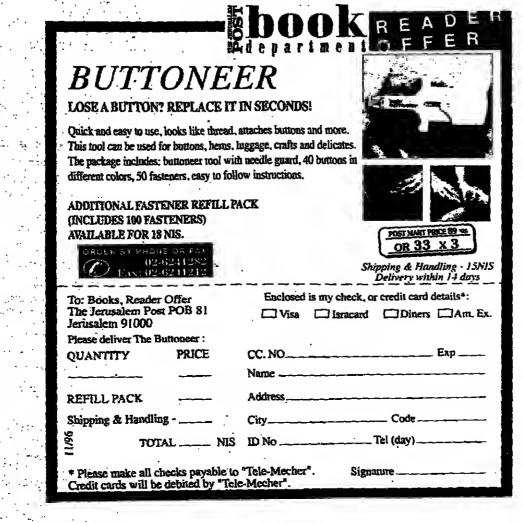

According to preliminary results from a study, international tourism grew by 4.6 percent in terms of arrivals to 592 million and 7.6 percent in terms of earnings to $423.1 billion, excluding air fares.

The fastest growing region in 1996 was the Middle East which rose by more than 10 percent in terms of arrivals to 15 million and 15 percent in terms of receipts to S8.2 billion.

But the most visited continent remained Europe with 347 million arrivals and $214.5 billion in

Among individual countries, France held on to the number one position with 61.5 million arrivals in 1996, but slipped to number three in terms of receipts, collecting some $28.2 billion.

The United States clocked up $64.4 billion in international tourism receipts, a 5.3 percent increase on 1995 and was the secand most visited country in the world with 44.8 million arrivals.

JP Price NIS 69

ORDER → phone: 02-624-1282 ♦ fax: 02-624-1212

Postage in Israel: one copy NIS 6, two or more NES 10 Total NES

m The Jerusalem Post, POB 81, Jerusalem 91000 Please send me _____copies of:
TOWARD MEANINGFUL LIFE & NIS 69 each: Finchesed check payable to The Jerusalem Post.

Visit us on http://www.jpost.co.il manuscripts. Hardcover, 252 pp. WZO Torah Education Dept. JP Price NIS 42.00 To: Books, The Jerusalem Post, POB 81, Jerusalem 91000 Please send me: Sambatyon NIS 42.00

City__

Sephardi ethos and terminology, differences between Eretz Israel and Diaspora customs, and the Impact of the rebirth of the State of Israel. Concise, source referenced, cross referenced, illustrated and indexed. Hardcover, 342 pp. WZO Torah Education Dept. JP Price NIS 35.00

ORDER BY PHONE OR FAX 02-6241282 Fax: 02-6241212 e-mail: orders@jpost.co.il

Judaism A-Z NIS 35.00 ☐ Both Volumes NIS 74.00 Enclosed is my check payable to The Jerusalem Post. Credit Card orders accepted by phone/ fax/ e-mail.

F. DAVID RADLER Chairman, Board of Directors YEHUDA LEVY, President & Publisher

Founded in 1932 by GERSHON AGRON

JEFF BARAK, Editor CARL SCHRAG. Managing Editor AMOTZ ASA-EL, Associate Editor, Business DAN IZENBERG. News Editor DAVID BRINN, Night Editor SAM ORBAUM. Features Editor THOMAS O'OWYER. Foreign Editor JUDY MONTAGU. Op-Ed Editor

PAUL STASZEWSKI, CPA, Vice President, Finance VOSSI HORN, Vice President, Production STANLEY SCHRIGER, Circulation Manager

BENZION MILLER, Tel Aviv Office Manager

EDITORIAL OFFICES AND ADMINISTRATION The Jerusalem Post Building, P.O. Box 81, Romema, Jerusalem 91000 Telephone 02-531-5666, Fax 02-538-95.77, CIRCULATION—02-531-5610. Fax 02-538-9017, ADVERTISING • 02-531-5608, 02-531-5667-40 Fax 02-538-8018. TEL AVIV: 5 Rehow Hamasger, POB 28398 (61283) Telephone 03-6390333, Fax 6390277, HAIFA 20 Nordau, Hadar Hacarmel, Telephone 04-8623166, Published daily except Saturday, in Jerusalem, Israel by The Palestine Post Ltd. Printed by The Jerusalem Post Press in Jerusalem. Registered at the G.P.O. © The Jerusalem Post 1997, Reproduction, or storage in a retrieval system, or in any other form, is prohibited without permission. Editors: 1932-1955 GERSHON AGRON, 1955-1974 TED LURIE, 1974-1975 LEA BEN-DOR, 1975-1989 ARI RATH and ERWIN FRENKEL, 1990-1992 N. DAVID GROSS, 1992-1996 DAVID BAR-ILLAN 1992-1996 DAVID BAR-ILLAN INTERNET EDITION: http://www.jpost.co.il General E-mail: jpedi@jpost.co.il Editorial E-mail:editors@jpost.co.il

A welcome appointment

as the next attorney-general provides some consolation for the bitter developments of the past week.

When Prime Minister Binyamin Netanyahu presents the appointment for approval today at a specially convened cabinet meeting, he will begin the process of restoring the polish 10 a judicial system badly tarnished by the clumsy hands of meddling ministers.

Rubinstein has all the right qualines to fit the demands of the job: his experience, legal ability and personal integrity are recognized by all who have come in contact with him. His non-partisanship, as highlighted by his serving as cabinet secretary in the governments of both Yitzhak Shamir and Yitzhak Rabin brings a welcome breath of fresh air to an administration in which the question "is he one of us?" seems to have been an overriding factor in assessing a person's qualification for any appointment or the chances of success in any job. The resignation this week of the prime minister's bureau chief. David Agmon. after only three months is just the latest example of the difficulties the prime minister seems to have in picking the right candidate for senior jobs.

Indeed, any comparison between Rubinstein and Bar-On as candidates for the post of attorney-general, even without taking into account the as-yet unproven revelations of Channel 1. is so overwhelmingly in Rubinstein's favor that one wonders how the government could even have considered Bar-On.

Justice Minister Tzahi Hanegbi - whose own role in the appointment of Bar-On is far from clear, and who at one time said Bar-On's candi-

THE appointment of Elyakim Rubinstein after Channel 1 aired its allegations - has rightly, even if belatedly come to realize that a candidate's political affiliation is not the overriding requisite for the job of attorney-general. Former Supreme Court president Meir Shamgar's acceptance of Hanegbi's request to head a public committee to define the requirements demanded in the appointment of an attoroeygeneral is, alongside the Rubinstein appointment, the only other piece of good news to emerge from the whole affair.

Unfortunately, it seems unlikely that the police investigation into the "Bar-On for Hebron" scandal will be concluded in the near future. contrary to Inspector-General Assaf Hefetz's optimistic declaration at the beginning of the week that it would be over in a few days. This is damaging both for the government and the Israel Broadcasting Authority - and by extension, Israeli journalism as a whole.

For as long as there are grounds to suspect govemment officials of cooking up a deal in which the country's would-be attorney-general promised Shas leader Aryeh Deri a sweet plea-bargain in return for Shas's support for the Hebron redeployment, this government cannot be trusted, regardless of whether the prime minister himself was aware of the work of his senior officials.

At the same time, Channel 1's refusal to present any bard evidence - on the grounds that it would compromise their sources - as to the truth of the allegations casts a serious shadow on the reliability of their information. Until firm evidence can be produced, the mere word of a reporter and her immediate superiors is not nearly enough to back up the most serious of dacy was his suggestion, only to then backtrack charges they bave leveled at the government.

The acceptable secessionist

NOT SETTLERS

ignorance over our ancient and continuing links through culture,

The Arab Palestinians ton are linked to the land. For the sake of peace, we cut a limb from ourselves, by ceding Hebron. The world must know that it is our limb

THE POLITICAL RIGHT

in fact the political, statist, secular logic of Herzl, Weizmann, Ben-Gurion and Begin (he returned the Sinai and started the process of compromise with the Palestinians)

and not the halachic visionary dreams of the absolutists, both

The future of Israel is clearly now the destiny of all those forces which choose the possible over the impractical, the attainable over the fantasy. Now is the time finally to cement the modern character of Israel as a secular, liberal democratic state with a

THE MOUNTAIN AQUIFER

religious and non-religious.

language, prayer and genealogy.

HE new-president elect of Chechnya, Aslan Maskhadov, is not a leader whose name will be known to many in the rest of the world. But the rest of the world hopefully will soon learn to be grateful that this is the leader chosen by this war-battered reluctant province of Russia in its first, and amazingly smooth, election since last year's cease-fire was reached.

Maskhadov, a 45-year-old former Soviet artillery colonel, not only won the first round of the election in a solid 70 percent turnout, but won it bandsomely enough - with more than 50% - to wipe out a second round. Chechens are delighted that their aspirations for independence will live on with their new president. Moscow is happy because almost any other outcome would have been deemed disastrous. If Russians consider Chechens "a bad lot," then Maskhadov is by far the best of them.

The new president's credentials among his people are impeccable. He is a warrior in the old mountain-rebel tradition, and is no appeaser of Russia but has won Moscow's respect as well as his people's for his ability to work with his country's old enemy. Not by compromise, but by a cunning mixture of war and jaw, he was mainly instrumental in getting the Russian army out of Chechnya, thus paving the way for the

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Sir, - The existential, as Jewish sovereignty in this land, is

Sir, - Referring to Jewish citizens of certain areas of Eretz

Yisrael as settlers constitutes a disservice to our state and people. The term raises images of new arrivals, transplants from other lands settling on new soil. That many non-

Jews the world over view our presence in the land in that light is not opposed to the local, implications of the Hebron agreement have been rightly emphasized in the media. It has clearly been shown to all that the Likud, as the secular branch of the Messianic movement, is now devoid of an ideology. The religious branch (Habad, the National Religious Party and the like) is left waiting as it has always done, and no doubt always

And so, in 1997, the final and conclusive demonstration that the Zionist logic when so brilliantly succeeded in re-establishing rates, designed to supply sufficient water for the expandiog population, but with due regard to the

However, since 1967, successive governments of Israel, instead input-output water balance.

will, for the Messiah.

of the mountain aquifer

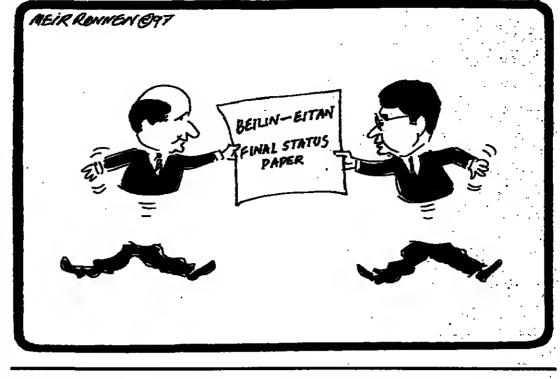

election victory he now has won. It was a clever combination of talents that eluded the better known, more charismatic - but ultimately more limited - Dzhokhar Dudayev, the rebel leader who was killed in the final days of the war.

most is his quite brilliant military campaign against the might of the Russian army and air force. Yet despite their burniliation at his bands. the Russian leaders still perceived in the soft-spoken strongman a way out of the bloody quagmire they had dug for themselves in Chechnya. During the peace talks, which he eventually signed last year, Maskhadov emerged as a man of realism and compromise. Maskhadov has declared himself to be no less a believer in Chechen independence than all his more radical political opponents, but there is no doubt that for Moscow he represents the acceptable face of secession.

first priority is not some mythical ideal, but helping Chechens recover from the ravages and destruction of the war. For that alone, and despite the huge difficulties ahead of him, he deserves the gratitude not just of his own people but of all of Russia whose sons were sent to die in one of Moscow's more pointless of useless wars.

What his people bave rewarded Maskhadov for Maskhadov struck the right chord by saying his

This 'Grumble' is real

The Greek Cypriot govern-ment's decision to spend $680m. on Russian S-300 missiles will certainly destabilize the area, as the US and Britain have acknowledged publicly. It may also undermine NATO by ruining its chance to enlarge its membership with countries such as Poland, Hungary and the Czech Republic. An enlarged NATO is the key to peace in Europe in the coming decade and NATO's expansion is an urgent issue, given the uncertainty over Russia's future. But the Russians, opposed to NATO's growth, are fighting back, using arms sales to bring down NATO's

The S-300 is no "defensive" missile system, contrary to what Cyprus President Glafcos Clerides claims. It is a modern, mobile, highly-lethal system capable of intercepting any kind of aircraft, cruise missiles or tactical ballistic missiles. In the West the S-300 is known as the SA-10. Appropriately, NATO calls it "Grumble."

The latest version uses the 48N6 missile, also used by the Russian Navy on its Kirov-class battlecruisers. Covering both low and high-altitude engagements, the missile has a range of some 150 km. It thus covers not only all of Cyprus, including the Turkish Republic of Northern Cyprus, but also important areas of Turkey where major air bases are located.

The Turks, learning about the Russian sale to Cyprus, were alarmed, and rightly so. Turkish military experts have been watching a growing arms buildnp in Greece, large defense expenditures by the Republic of Cyprus (on the order of $3m. per day) and a "defense" agreement between Greece and Cyprus which establishes an automatic response by Greece for any perceived attack against Cyprus.

It is noteworthy that when the Turks threatened to take out the S-300 system if it was delivered to STEPHEN BRYEN defense minister said it would lead to war between Greece and

Turkey. The US was quick to condemn the Turkish threat against the Russian missiles, but silent about the Greek commitments to Cyprus and the arms buildup both in Greece and Cyprus. Instead, it appointed a mediator, and quickly nounced that it would attempt to mediate the long-term tense relationship between Greek and

For US security, keeping the Russian missiles out of Cyprus is more urgent than was tying up US foreign policy over Hebron

Turkish Cypriots in the 18-month period before the Russian missiles

Unfortunately, the US response is only a tactic, not a path to resolving the differences that have divided the island. If anything, Russian insertion into the Cyprus crisis, and other Russian arms sales in the works to Greece, firsty not only help to freeze any prospect for a peaceful solution, but will escalate the strains between Greece and Turkey.

It is this circumstance that can cause the most harm to NATO. It would appear the Russians may bave found a way to stop NATO's enlargement, by demonstrating its inability to act decisively even among its own core members.

IN THIS context, the US needs to focus much more on the Cyprus situation. In the framework of US security, keeping the Russian mis-ment over a deal in Hebron.

The US has leverage. There are effective ways to convince the Russians to drop the deal.

To begin with, the deal violates UN resolutions which urged cuts in military spending on Cyprus. While the Russians may not care to follow UN guidance, Russia needs finance and support from the West, and Boris Yeltsin's shaky government would be well advised to find an acceptable accommodation with Washington.

The US has the ability to make the game very costly. For example, an important Russian revenue center is its commercial space launch capability. A US freeze on that would hurt the Russians severely. The Greek government also needs to hear clearly and convincmgly from Washington. The situation has, for too long, been left to low-level discussions between the countries. The US needs to explain its policy and its need for a stable situation in Europe, and Greece needs to live up to its responsibilities as a NATO mem-

Even more importantly, the situation on the ground in Cyprus needs a better-defined US policy. For too long the US has been dealing with symptoms rather than causes. If it wants to see an improved relationship between the two communities that live on Cyprus, it needs a program that can belp resolve their social, economic and political differences.

Especially important is raising the standard of living and improving the economy on the Turkish Cypriot side, and creating a series of confidence-building measures that can provide a foundation for long-term peace and reconciliation. New Secretary of State Madeleine Albright needs to make Cyprus one of her top priorities.

The writer, a senior defense official during the Reagan administration, was staff director of the US Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

Since any attack by Turkey on military installations in Cyprus would have to be interpreted by both Greece and the Greek

Cypriots as tantamount to a declaration of war and a testing of their joint-defense pact, it is time for the US and Europe, Turkey's

NATO allies, to tell it firmly that it can gain nothing from the provocative tactics that constitute its foreign policy toward Greece.

It is also time commentators stopped presenting the Cyprus problem as an "intractable" dispute between Greek and Turkish Cypriots. Turkey calls the shots; it is using the Turkish Cypriots as pawns in power games that have nothing to do with their security and well-being. Even in the illegal state Turkey created by forcing thousands of Cypriots from their homes and villages, they are a marginalized minority, ontnumbered by Turkish colonists and soldiers and controlled by decisions made in Turkey and realized by Denktash's pupper government.

No wonder their numbers are decreasing as they emigrate from the mess Turkey created for them.

Like the Greek Cypriots, the Long overdue

KENNETH LASSON

Tasser Arafat's announcement that Israel will release Palestinian prisoners as part of the Hebron agreement contrasts sharply with the recent statement by Justice Minister Tzahi Hanegbi that every effort must be made to briog Jonathan Pollard to the Holy Land so he can serve out the rest of his sentence here.

Such suggestions demonstrate the weakness of the government's resolve (the emptiness of its promises?) to seek Pollard's redemption.

Can Israel seriously believe that a life term in one of its own prisons will do anything more than perpetuate an injustice in which it was demonstrably complicit?

It would mock the meaning of express national policy, namely that "Israel will use all means at its disposal to bring home the Prisoners of War and Missing in Action and all those who worked for the security of the state, and will insist oo this point during negotiations with all relevant parties."
(Guidelines of the Government,

6/16/96). The emphasized clause refers specifically to Pollard, the Israeli citizen whose "immediate release," said Binyamin Binyamin Netanyahu last May, "... between close friends and strong allies is the only thing to do... it is long overdue.

Similar assurances were given to Pollard supporters in meetings with religious and political leaders now part of the coalition government. But the gap between word and deed has been

No prime minister, for example, has ever openly sought to link Pollard's release with any of the numerous concessions (all strongly encouraged by the US) Israel has made during the peace process. No foreign minister, ambassador or MK has straight-

> Poliard must go home to Israel as a free man .

forwardly enlisted the support of friends on Capitol Hill for this cause. No Israeli leader has forthrightly exercised public leverage on Pollard's bebalf, despite knowing full well that everything said or done in private has had little effect.

The US, on the other hand, has had no compunction about openly pressuring Israel to release convicted terrorists as a conciliatory gesture to the Palestinians, or demanding that its strongest ally in the Middle East trade land for

THE Clinton administration's policy toward Pollard has been dictated largely by members of its intelligence community, before whom the president appears to

Their righteous indignation at having been betrayed seemingly masks their inability to draw a distinction between Pollard's sins and those of more recently convicted mercenaries in their midst, between the misguided passing of confidential information to a friendly nation perceived at risk and flagrant treason. It calls into question both their sense of moral balance and the quality of their moral outrage.

Moreover, the architects of Pollard's life sentence have continually used it to question

Israel's reliability as an ally. Besides, smacking of antisemitism, such posturing reinforces the seemingly ageless paranoia of the American Jewish "leadership," which has been content to take repeated denials of justice for Pollard in its politically correct and docile stride. The undisputed facts of Pollard's tragic plight need not be rehearsed, any more than the barely deniable declaration that his hlatantly disproportionate life sentence - not only the harshest possible ever meted out for a similar offense, but the longest served to date — is (as a dissenting appellate judge called it) "a complete and gross miscarriage of justice." Even if it were not, in Pollard's case justice has already been amply served. "Now," as Nobel Lanreate Elie Wiesel wrote recently, "is the time for human compassion."

Now, to put it another way, is the time for Israel to show its strength of character, to shoulder its responsibility, to demonstrate once and for all that it oeed not only respect the biddings of a benefactor, it must make the principled demands of a partner as

That means insisting that Jonathan Pollard go home to Israel - from, not to, captivity.

The writer is a professor of law at the University of Baltimore.

siles out of Cyprus is more urgent than was tying up almost the Cyprus by the Russians, the Greek entire US foreign policy establishsonable people that Turkey should be objecting to the Cypriot government's plan to buy the Russian S-300 anti-aircraft syssurprising, given the prevalent that we sacrifice and that we feel tem. Every nation has the right to the pain. The few Jews who live self-defense, and it is absurd that there are not settlers, but have thethe aggressor against whom the same rights to residence as did our. Cypriot government feels it needs Patriarchs who are buried there. to defend itself - who has already invaded and occupied 37 percent The Jerusalem Post, at least, should of the island - should be insisting M.L. GELMAN that Cyprus remain defenseless and at its mercy, or else. Perhaps the Turkish government would like the Greek Cypriots to build special roads for the Turkish army's tanks and provide refreshments for its soldiers should they feel the need to advance further

Turkey's threats appear even more unreasonable when one recalls that the Cyprus government has repeatedly proposed demilitarization, including an offer made hy President Clerides in 1993, which still stands. Subject to the withdrawal of Turkey's troops, he offered to disband the National Guard, hand its weapons over to the UN peacekeeping force, fund the total cost of an enlarged force, and redirect any money left over from the defense budget into a fund for bi-communal projects.

Demilitarization seems like an ideal solution to the current impasse; but the proposal was rejected - for the simple reason that Turkey doesn't want the Cyprus problem solved.

The Greek Cypriots are seriously concerned that Turkey's real aim is to annex the part of Cyprus it occupies, and that it is merely waiting for a suitable pretext. Even more worrying for the Greek Cypriots is the irrational view prevalent among Turkish nationalists that Cyprus is Turkish (despite the fact that Greek Cypriots constitute over 80 percent of the island's legal popula-

PAYLOS ANDRONIKOS

The Russian missiles are a must tion) and there is a real fear that Turkey has its sights set on occupying the whole of the island if Greece and Turkey go to war, especially if Cyprus is also involved.

And to the Greeks, it seems obvious that Turkey wants to provoke a war. It clearly covets the Greek islands closest to its Aegean coastline, and has its eyes on Thrace, with its sizable Turkish minority.

A war with a Greece ill-prepared to test Turkey's military strength

Of course an aggressor (Turkey) prefers its victim (Cyprus) to remain defenseless would, Turkey hopes, open the way to territorial gains on both these fronts, giving it the excuse it needs to occupy the whole of Cyprus.

Turkey has learned only too well from its 1974 invasion of Cyprus that so long as it can come up with a plausible pretext for mil-itary action, the US and Europe will not intervene, or not quickly enough to prevent territorial gains. This is a lesson the Greeks have also learned. Understandably, they are looking jointly to their defense.

GREECE and Cyprus have committed themselves to spending huge sums they can ill afford on military hardware so as to have some chance of deterring a Turkish invasion. Since neither has any designs on Turkish territory, their strength-ening of their defense capabilities has to be seen as just that. Australia.

great majority of Turkish Cypriots want a solution to the Cyprus problem so that a unified Cyprus can join the European Union. They don't want to be annexed by Turkey or swamped by "settlers." Bot this isn't what Turkey wants, or it would accept demilitarization, withdraw its armed forces from the island, and allow the Turkish Cypriots to freely elect representatives to negotime with the Greek Cypriots oo a new constitution for Cyprus.

The writer heads the Modern Greek section of the Department of Classics and Archeology at Monash University, Victoria,

Sir, - I was astonished to read in principles governing the exploitayour editorial of January 15 than tion of the West Bank part of the you feared the Palestinian Authority mountain aquifer, so carefully calmight behave in an irresponsible culated by the previous Arab jurisway with respect to the exploitation diction, have mined this part of the aquifer by gross overpumping. Under Arab jurisdiction, that Such irresponsibility is in contrapart of the aquifer, now pumped vention of the principles of interby the five Herodian wells, was national law governing the behav-ior of the "belligerent occupier" of carefully surveyed and plans were the West Bank. drawn up for appropriate pumping

Between 1979 and 1989, overpumping from this part of the mountain aquifer lowered the static water level by about 30 meters. Instead of trying to redress the water balance between recharge of following the wise management and well extraction, the Israeli authorities have actually increased the rate of extraction since 1989, thus lowering the water table to cease to refer to them as settlers.

universally acclaimed constitution, and consign nightmares of a theocracy with fascist lap-dogs to the trash can. The struggle for the ideofity of Israeli society must now be joined in earnest, and it must end as a true Zionist expression of all Jews in a modern world. And most importantly, the secular conservative forces in Israel (the majority in my opinion) must set about redefining the political right so as to deny the defeatist left the eotire inheritance

DR. ANTHONY S. LUDER

the current debacle.

Bulawayo, Zimbabwe.

even more alarming levels. Article 40 of the Oslo 2 Accords is concerned with the sharing of water resources by Israelis and Palestinians during the interim period, but gives no power to the Palestinian authorities to prevent further overpumping by the Israeli authorities of that part of the mountain aquifer under the West

> DAVID SCARPA Bethlehem University attended to the second

- P. B. . .

Joseph

1...

PARENTING

A time to correct

Then my four-and-a-half-year-old says something inaccurate and I correct him, he gets upset. For example, he'll count, 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 7, 8 and I'll say, "Let me teach you how to do it right," and he'll say, "No!" and get upset. How do I decide when to help him learn something and when to let him make his mistakes? I feel like I'm. betraying him by letting him make mistakes and maybe having other kids laugh at him when he does it in their presence. I'm a teacher.

Moshe Bar-Ness, Waldorf kindergarten teacher, responds: With many questions like this, you can observe your child, as you did, and get the response you seek. He is providing the answer to your questioo.

Young children learn almost everything through imitatioo, for example, to speak their native language, to walk upright, to sing and also to count. Almost every early childhood educational problem can be looked at with this in mind.

Your child is acting in a natural, healthy, age-appropriate way. Children this age do not like to he corrected. What they like to do is to be active and hasy, not to listen to and follow directions. That is more appropriate for older kids. Their activities can involve them either in their fantasy world or in our world of reality. Giving them directions or corrections, is an interference in their world.

couot. In Waldorf education, children learn to count in first grade at the age of six or seven and they go on to do well in math and science. But even then, we teach counting in a rhythmic-way, and involve the whole body with clapping, jumping and stamping to the numbers. It turns counting into something that's alive and fun for the kids

Rudolf Steiner, on whose ideas Waldorf education is hased, taoght that until the ages of six or seven a child's internal vital energies go toward huilding his body and learning to use it well. Only after his teeth hegin to fall out are these energies free to be used for more intellectual or abstract activities. Counting is an abstract activity. Asking a child to focus on soch an activity at too early an age diverts his energies to a task for which they are oot meant. You might notice that children who are required to eogage in abstract thinking too early may be pale, have cold hands and feet, or seem lazy or lacking in energy.

By the time children eoter school, they usually want to know what is correct and are willing to listeo. Give him time and he will too. And don't worry yourself unnecessarily about what other kids will say. Give him the opportunity to deal with it if there is a problem. From the way he's reacting; it sounds like you're trying to protect him from one potential problem hy creating another real one.

Your child will learn to count when he's ready whether you There is no reason to teach a correct him or not. So relax, take four-and-a-half-year-old to your coes from him and enjoy.

Hillary Clinton: America's 'co-president' in her 2nd term

By PETER BAKER

October day, Hillary Rodham Clinton took a break from the presidential cam-paign, put on shorts and went for a walk with a couple of old friends.
Strolling through Georgetown she abruptly stopped and without explanation led her pals around to the back of a nearby building.

"I was right," she exclaimed. This is my doctor's office. I only recognize it from the back." When you're first lady you wind up entering many buildings from the rear and your view of the world is a little skewed. Backs of buildings look like fronts. Bad politics may look like good policy - or is it the other way around? But as she begins a second term after four turbulent years as the nation's most visible spouse, friends say Hillary Clinton now recognizes there is more than one side to a multi-faceted role she has struggled to master.

Now, associates say, she has a fuller understanding of the job, an appreciation of its muances, contours and, yes, limitations. It doesn't always require signed bills to make a difference, she has discovered. The power of her voice, her ability to focus attention on a favorite issue, are enough to redefine the debate.

Whether this realization represents a natural maturation on the job or diminished expectations after a humbling first term, Hillary Clinton has by no means . surrendered her position as a vital force in the White House. While not the "co-president" as evidenced by her attendance at the recent day-long Cabinet retreat, and has laid down markers for second-term legislative goals in health care, adoption and the District of Columbia's financial crisis.

Still, her public comments in the months since her husband's reelecoon have provided an occasional window into her evolving vision of her role in public life. She will, by process of elimination, serve as virtually the only strong liberal voice left in an administration that's gone through a centrist makeover. Her aspirations for the next four years continue to be centered on children's and women's issues, according to her aides, and carried out along the lines of three first-term successes. And her relatively quiet work on "Gulf War Syndrome" illnesses promises to be a model for future, generally low-key advocacy on issues important to her, with welfare reform at the top of the list.

For all of the talk about Hillary Clinton as a pioneering, transitional figure for women, she is hardly the first presidential spouse to play a dominant role in her husband's administration, nor is it likely that hers has been the most significant. The involvement of first ladies, and the controversy that inevitably follows, can be traced nearly to the dawn of the Republic. Abigail Adams, the second woman to occupy the position, was consulted on virtually every presidential action - and was densively dubbed "Mrs. President" as a result.

Nellie Taft crafted William her critics feared, she remains Howard Taft's speeches, vetoed his Hillary Clinton starts this new term after four years as difficult as any of her predecessors experienced.

personnel choices and attended his Cabinet meetings; even her husband called her "the real president." Edith Wilson essentially ran what was called a "petticoat government" for months while Woodrow Wilson was incapacitated by a stroke. Hillary Clinton is "a variation on the same theme," said Sheila Tate. Tate who worked for Nancy Reagan, whose influence was so great that she was considered responsible, among other things, for firing White House Chief of Staff Donald T. Regan, said: "Any time a first lady too visibly usurps or is given the lat-itude to involve herself too visibly in the work the American people assign to the president, they balk."

Nonetheless, Hillary Clinton starts this next term after four years as trying as any of her predecessors experienced. Persistent investigations into her finances and actions make her the first presidential spouse to enter a second term faced with potential indictment. Personal tragedies. including family deaths, have compounded the moments of misery. "It's been tough, really tough. Rougher than any of us would have anticipated," said Lynn Cutler, a friend and former vice chairwoman of the Democratic National

As a result, perhaps, her distrust of the Washington establishment, and the news media in particular, is palpable. Six weeks of requests for an interview for this article yielded only a four-paragraph written state-ment outlining her second-term goals in the broadest of terms.

And consequently, Hillary Clinton's enigma remains in the dichotomy of her persona. She can be as engaging at public events as her gregarious husband. Friends describe a warm, generous and funny woman in private, one who takes her aides' children to theatrical productions and dances the Macarena with her buddies in a Little Rock hotel suite while waiting for Election Night returns. Her staff's devotion to her is so deep it borders on idolatry, to the point that one aide compares the response to the first lady's overseas trips to "the second coming of Christ."

But in the public mind, she is often seen as cold, guarded and supremely certain that hers is the right and only view. Friends insist that side of her is the defensive crouch of a woman who feels misunderstood.

"In our country, we expect so much from the woman who is married to the president, but we don't really know what it is we expect," the First Lady recently said. "I think the answer is to just be who you are and do what you can do and get through it - and wait for a first man to hold the position." (The Washington Post)

Open-door policy to new Jews

The query arrived for Rabbi Harold Schniweis by email. "I am an 86-year-old man and I want to become a Jew," announced the sender. "But I am worried about having to be cir-

Schulweis responded, in part: "Abraham was 90 when he was circumcised, so you have four more years to arrive at a decision."

must w

MARKET TO ISSUE

🤞 医... 😘

4

18 15 B - 1 1.00

igan -

e Dark

Selection of 書類 かんしょう

8 1 1 m Barrier .

.

🏂 🥳 😗 🔻

A. . . .

45-21.3

41 -----

2. 25

-

 $(\gamma_{\alpha})_{\alpha} = \gamma_{\alpha+\alpha}$

المتأرية أمتور

= 31 °5

100

grand a digar to.

Section 1

 $\widehat{\mathbf{g}}_{\mathbf{R}^{n}} = \mathbf{g}^{n} \times$

16 3 m

Jan 14

 $\operatorname{rediff}_{\mathcal{F}_{\mathcal{A}}}(x,y,\mathbf{1}^{(1)})$

$ 198 A.

10 P ×,,′′'• - 1 *

Two months ago, Schulweis proposed in a sermon to his Valley Beth Shalom congregation that Jews actively seek converts among interested unaffiliated non-

His call, widely reported in the Jewish and secular press, trig-gered a rash of inquiries via the Internet and drew 450 people to his temple in Encino, California. They came in response to an advertised "Invitation to Seekers" to attend the first of four talks on The Uniqueness of Judaism."

The invitation was addressed to people of all faiths and backgrounds who are unchurched and seek wisdom, meaning and a community of warmth and welcome." There were a fair number of his congregants in the audience and other Schulweis groupies, who rarely miss a chance to listeo to the eloquent and visionary rabbi.

His remarks reflected his belief that in explaining the meaning of Judaism to outsiders, Jews come to understand and deepen their own faith.

This is not an academic exereise," Schulweis told his listeners. "In talking to you, I am talking to myself as well."

In the same vein, Schulweis spoke equally to born Jews as to born Christians when he denounced "the pernicious myth

A California rabbi has been inundated with inquiries from actively seek converts, that Jodaism is inhospitable to non-Jews. Judaism is not a private club of those born to Jewish moth-

Jews who look askance at converts, he said, display "a shameful hias based on ignorance of Jewish theology.... The Bible and the Talmud repeatedly exhort us to accept the stranger with love and respect.

Schulweis frequently emphasized the oon-exclusivity of the Jewish "club."

"Jodaism has no monopoly on God," he said. "You don't have to be Jewish to be loved by God.... Adam was not a Jew, Adam was Everyman."

In a sense, Schulweis was implicitly responding to Orthodox and some fellow Conservative rabbis, who have criticized his conversionary outreach. He put his basic motivation in everyday terms. "When you see a great play or read a great book, you want to tell your friends about it. I feel the same excitement about the grandeur of Judaism." The hesitation of many wouldbe converts that they will he rejected by born Jews was confirmed by conversations with a oumber of oon-Jews before and after the rabbi's talk.

"I always perceived Jews as a closed group," said Kathy Burns, a

Gentiles after suggesting Jews Tom Tugend reports from LA

law-enforcement officer in Saugus. "I was raised as a Catholic, then became a bomagain Christian," she said. "I have a lot of unresolved questions about religion and I am encouraged that Judaism asks questions."

Barbara Mack, also raised as a Catholie, agreed that she was always told that Jews didn't accept outsiders. "It's a good feeling to be welcomed," she said after listening to Schulweis. "Judaism seems to be much more openminded than I thought."

Robin Carlson grew up in "a sheltered religion," as a Mormon in a small town without Jews, but developed an interest in other religions. She said she liked Schulweis's emphasis on individual responsibility but felt be badn't "covered a whole lot" and promised to be back for the

In planning the four-lecture series, Valley Beth Shalom had done its homework. Each attendant was supplied with an extensive reading list on Judaism, as well as a listing of some 17 Conservative and Orthodox rabbis ready to respond to personal questions.

humorous touches and insights, with negous channing illustrations.

A Feeding dressing bathing playing, outings, shopping and enjoying your grandchildren will be much more fun as this phrase book belps you talk to them and understand their responses.

▲ Words and phrases are cleverly grouped into sections relating to everyday life.

with the same of t

A Translation and transliteration according to the Berlitz method, in a reader-friendly remaining talks.

Schulweis: I am not trying to win converts to Conservative Judaism only. If they connect with Habad, that's great (Bill Arcu)

"I am not trying to win converts to Conservative Judaism only," said Schulweis. "If they connect with Habad, that's great." Pointing to the large number of electronic messages he had received about conversion, Schulweis said he was bemused by the perceptions of some of his Internet interlocutors.

They frequently ask why the Jews didn't accept Jesus, and many seem to have the ootion that first came Jesus, and then came the Jews and rejected him," Schulweis ooted.

To reach out further, Valley Beth Shalom has opened a web site at www.VBS.org.

GRAPEVINE

A civil servant par excellence

By GREER FAY CASHMAN

united in singing his praises as the quintessential civil servant. In an Israel Radio interview Shimon Peres lauded his phenomenal memory and Yitzhak Shamir his sense of humor. Shamir recalled that two of the people who particularly appreciated Rubinstein's talent for telling side-splitting anecdotes were Ronald Reagan and George Shultz. Rubinstein's fluency in Arabic, he added, also helped to lighten the atmosphere in negotiations with the Jordanians.

WHATEVER THE results of the probe into the Channel 1 scoop on the alleged anomey-general deal between Shas MK Aryeh Deri and the Prime Minister's Office. the whole affair has catapulted Channel 1 reporter Ayala Hasson into star category. Whether she will be a falling star remains to be seen, but meanwhile she's the brightest light in the electronic media constellation, both as interviewer and interviewee, and is being seen and quoted on the opposition Channel 2 and competing radio stations. If nothing else, she has certainly done wonders for Channel 1's rating. She's also generated a brand-new party game of worst-case scenarios, with most

JP Price

only NIS 35

what might happen if she's right. Though on opposite sides of But if she's wrong, it will be even worked with attorney-general des- Bar-On and other star players in ignate Elyakim Ruhinstein were this true-life-is-better-than-fiction melodrama will win in libel and character defamation suits.

> JEWISH AGENCY chairman Avraham Burg enjoyed a virtual 42nd hirthday party last week when he addressed two groups of Jewish leaders in Orange County, California. Burg. who undertook a strenuous fund-raising and Jewish identification tour across America last September, raising $52 million, was curious whether he could have the same impact in a telecon-ference. Using sophisticated Bezeq technology, he spoke to the people in California, whom he was able to see, and they watched him "live" and responded. When they brought him a birthday cake, Burg, in a symbolic effort to blow out the candles, blew into the camera.

APPEARING WITH industry and Trade Minister Natan Sharansky at the opening of the Hadassah mid-winter conference, Burg confided, after Sharansky left, that when Sharansky had first come to Israel he had been his chauffeur. "Now he's a minister in the government of Israel, and I'm working in Siberia," he quipped.

WHILE ISRAELIS are watching people working on the basis of reruns of Alfred Hitchcock movies and teleproductions, Hollywood is into remakes, and at least six of the political fence, two for-mer prime ministers who Deri, besmirched lawyer Roni the master's suspense thrillers are scheduled for updates. But the master's suspense thrillers are Hitchcock fans can also anticipate something new, No Bail for the Judge, an A.H. unproduced script which has reportedly been purchased by Madonna's Maverick production company. The question now is whether the script contains a sufficiently meaty role to enable her to emulate the success she had

> THE RIGHT of Israeli expatriate citizens to vote in Israel's national elections is apparently as controversial a subject abroad as it is

Moshe and Tova Yamin had a phone-in program on the subject on their Reshet Gimmel station in Miami oo the day of the Superbowl. Even though many of the Israelis living in Miami are keen sports fans, the lines to the station were jammed. Those who got through voiced opinions for and against. Several callers opined that they didn't have the right to make decisions affecting the lives of people actually residing io Israel; but one caller said that if Arahs with dual loyalties could decide oo Israel's fate just because they were living in Israel, non-resident Israelis with dual loyalties should surely be allowed to do the

DON'T BE LEFT OUT! If you don't have e-mail or even a computer you can still advertise!

INTERNET POST CLASSIFIEDS
Reach all of Israel and the world for just:

T For Two, weeks $13 US Dollars/NIS 45 One Month $25 US Dollars/NIS 88 $45 US Dollars/NIS 158 Two Month Three Months $70 US Dollars/NIS 245 Six Months $130 US Dollars/NIS 458 List category and sub-category: Fax this form: In US & Canada, 212-599-4743 in Israel & the rest of the world: 972-2-531-5622 or place your ad directly on our web site at http://www.jpost.co.il Credit Card No...

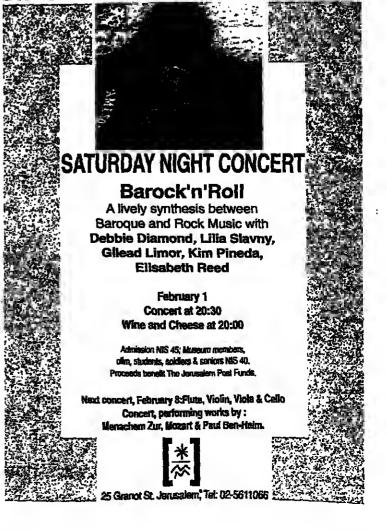

Books, The Jerusalem Post, POB 81, Jerusalem 91000 Please send me _____ copies of:

GRANDMA & GRANDPA at NIS 35 tach Postage in Israel: one copy NIS 6, two or more NIS 10 _ Enclosed check payable to The Jerusalem Post, or credit card details. Please list gift recipient's name, address and message separately. ☐ Isc/MCD ☐ Diners

BUSINESS&FINANCE

BUSINESS

in brief

Sunfrost shuts plant, fires 150 workers

Sunfrost, a subsidiary of Clal Industries, has closed its produc-don factory in Ashdod and fired 150 workers in an anempt to reduce losses. The frozen food manufacturer has transferred its production to the Pri Ha'emek factory in Migdal Ha'emek. The decision to close the plant was reached after Clal management failed to find a strategic international partner. Galit Lipkis Beck

Industrial production up 5% in November

Industrial production rose five percent in November, following a 4% increase through September and October and a total of 2%-3% from April to August last year, the Central Bureau of Statistics yesterday reported. Industrial exports (excluding diamonds and trade with the Palestinian Authority) were up 6%-7% in the November-December period.

'Privatization won't cause job losses'

PRIVATIZATION VICTIMS?

workforce in government sell-off plan for 1997

Arad and Dead Sea Region Development Co. Ltd.*

Israel Foreign Trade Risks Insurance Corp. Lat.*

Sources: Government Companies Authority 1995 annual report

*Dun & Bradstreet International: tsraet's leading enterprises 1996

#Company's own statistics as of 28/1/97

Eilat Foreshore Development Co. Ltd.*

Laromme Hotels International Ltd.#

Israel Chemicals Ltd.#

Israel School of Tourism*

Yozma Venture Capital Ltd.*

Zim Israel Navigation Co. Ltd.^

Wertheimer and Dan Propper, who both said it is inevitable there will be layoffs as a direct result of the in some companies," said Leon, who is in charge of privatization alongside Government Companies

Authority director-general Tzipi

Livni. However, he refused to Various government ministers, led by Finance Minister Dan

Meridor and Communications

Minister Limor Livnat, have in recent months said any initial job losses will be offset by job creation as a result of increased competition in the private sector, pardcularly in the communications

"I fear there will certainly be job losses in the short term," Labor and Social Affairs Ministry director-general Yigal Ben-Shalom

"If anything, jobs will be created sale of government assets.

elaborate.

National Oil Co. Ltd.*

By DAVID HARRIS

Prime Minister's Office deputy director-general Moshe Leon has strongly rejected suggestions that there will be job losses as a result of the government's newly published privatization program.

Speaking to The Jerusalem Post. Leon described suggestions of widespread redundancies as "complete nonsense."

His rebuttal followed comments by leading industrialists Stef

The ministry is already discussing the creation of professional skill-conversion courses and special educational funds to cope with the expected increase in unemployment, he added.

Leon also rejected Wertheimer's suggestion that the government, management and workers should meet to discuss the implications of privatization. What would you rather do - privatize or talk?" asked Leon.

"Does that mean you won't talk employees

29

Ł5

12,125

67,000

105

21

210

26

4,083

83,628

Central bank denies plan to abandon exchange rate system

Meridor: Treasury opposes changes in diagonal mechanism

By Jerusalem Post Staff

The Bank of Israel yesterday denied a Yediot Aharonot report which said it is considering abolishing the so-called diagonal mechanism, which defines the limits within which the central bank allows the markets to determine the shekel's

The diagonal is based on the difference between the government's inflation target and the forecast inflation levels among various major developed economies. The exchange-rate mechanism is not bound to change in the near future," said Bank of Israel spokesman Ohad Bar-Efrat, who conceded that various senior officials in the central bank want to see an expansion of the shekel's trade limits, which are currently set at 7% above and below the diagonal.

"It's known that some senior managers in the bank would like to see a change to the diagonal," he said, but stressed that no such decision has been taken, "nor has it even been proposed."

A statement from the Treasury also said media reports of a propos-al to abolish the band mechanism are unconfirmed.

Meanwhile, Finance Minister Dan Meridor told reporters that the Treasury is opposed to any change in the current mechanism. "We have no intention of altering the diagonal band," he said, "The governor [of the Bank of Israel, Jacob Frenkel] knows my views on this."

The shekel yesterday shed another 0.39 percent of its value against the dollar, which rose to another historic high of NIS 3.3190. However, the shekel's recent depreciation against the dollar is on a much narrower scale than other major currencies', most notably the Japanese yen, which yesterday broke through the psychological barrier of 120 to the dollar.

An excessively strong shekel hampers exporters, whose foreigncurrency denominated income loses value in local terms. The diagonal mechanism allows the shekel to float so long as the market does not lead it beyond the bands which envelope it.

When the markets seek to trade the shekel for prices which exceed the diagonal's bands, the Bank of Israel intervenes in trading - buying shekels when the currency is too weak and selling when it is too strong - in order to bring the currency back into the diagonal's limits. Bankers believe the central bank has so far spent $750m. in its effort to weaken the shekel. The shekel's relatively high demand in the markets stems from the central bank's tight monetary policy, which makes it incrative to keep shekels in bank deposits.

Manufacturers Association president Dan Propper condemned any plan to abandon or alter the diagonal. Such a "dangerous" move would "cause an immediate and severe crisis in the economy," he

Nortel buys 20% stake in Telrad

By GALIT LIPKIS BECK

Northern Telecom yesterday acquired 20 percent of Telrad Telecommunication Electronic Industries, a fullyowned subsidiary of Koor Industries, for $45 million through Nortel Communications, an indi rect wholly-owned subsidiary.

Telrad will launch an initial pub-lic equity offering in the near future, most probably in the US, said Koor Industries president and CEO Benjamin Gaon. A date has not yet been set for the offering. Telrad, which was founded in 1951, is the country's largest telecommunications equipment maker, with some 2,660 employ-ees and a $400 million annual turnover last year.

Nortel, which is headquartered in Toronto, is a world leader in the field of communications networks, employing about 68,000 people worldwide. The company had $12.8 billion in revenues last year, a 20 percent increase from 1995.

Speaking at the official signing ceremony in Tel Aviv yesterday, Nortel president and CEO Jean Monty said Telrad's engineering and research capability were major factors in the company's decision to enter the deal.

Though he conceded that the Hebron agreement encouraged Nortel, Monty said the company had long intended to seal a longterm agreement with Telrad.

Nortel intends to inject additional capital into Telrad to increase its market share.

According to Monty, the telecommunications systems market is estimated at about $200 billion globally and is growing at a rate of about 10%-12% a year. "We want to globalize and expand markets," he said.

The agreement covers five major fields, said Telrad president Bezalel Levin, who added be expects the deal to generate additional access to new products and technologies, increase its basket of products, help penetrate new markets, enhance research capability and expand sales to Nortel, which last year totaled $120m.

Levin revealed the two companies are close to finalizing an agreement in Ethiopia.

'We see Nortel's investment as an integral component of Koor's overall corporate strategy to team up with leading multinational companies in each of our core businesses," said Gaon.

In recent years Koor has signed partnership agreements with General Dynamics, CPI, Henkel, Volvo and others.

The relationship between Telrad and Northern Telecom started in 1995, when the two companies signed a cooperation agreement to enable Telrad to market Northern Telecom products here and abroad. At about the same time, Northern Telecom signed an agreement-giving it an option to purchase 20% of Telrad's common stock until the end of 1996.

Psychological barrier broken

A money dealer at the Tokyo Foreign Exchange breaks into laughter yesterday as the US dollar passes the psychologically important 121 barrier to 120.05 yen for the first time since February 1993.

By JENNIFER FRIEDLIN

The companies to be sold in the Quantum Industrial Holdings first wave will be: Bezeq, the National Oil Co. Ltd., Yozma Venture Capital Ltd., Israel Chemicals Ltd., Zim Israel Navigation Co. Ltd., Afridar (Ashkelon real estate developer), Laromme Hotels International in Israeli high tech companies. Comverse, based in New York. Ltd., the Israel School of Tourism. the Israel Foreign Trade Risks Insurance Corp. Ltd., Eilat Foreshore Development Co. Ltd., and Arad and Dead Sea Region Development Co. Ltd.

So far no date has been set for the sales of these companies, but in some cases the process has already started, and in others will begin in the coming weeks.

with the Histadrut about privatization," asked the Jerusolem Post.

"Of course we will," he replied.

Leon also pointed out that the first companies to be privatized

"do not employ that many peogh-tech sector.

Ltd., a fund managed by financier George Soros's Soros Fund Management LLC, and Comverse Technology yesterday announced the formation of a new private equity fund that will focus on investing designs, develops and manufactures computer and telecommunications systems for a variety of applications. Each parmer has invested $15 million in the ComSor Investment Fund BV, which is headquartered in the Netherlands. Representatives said they decided to start the fund because of the opportunities available in Israel's

'Israel's technology industries have rapidly become among the most advanced in the world, producing a stream of new ventures that is extraordinary in terms of both its rate of growth and its quality," Comverse Technology president and chairman Kobi Alexander said in a statement

ComSor will be represented in Israel by Comverse Investments Ltd., a wholly-owned subsidiary of Comverse Technology Inc.

Comverse holds 23% of software company DSL and has investments in Netvision, Smartlight and AVT.

Soros, Comverse start Shamrock seeks to buy $30 million Israel fund Hapoalim's Koor stake process.

within two weeks.

By GALIT LIPKIS BECK

The Shamrock group will be very interested in buying Bank Hapoalim's shares in Koor Industries, according to Stanley Gold, president of Shamrock and chairman of Koor.

Earlier this week Prime Minister Binyamin Netanyahu instructed the Treasury, Justice Ministry and Bank of Israel's legal advisers to examine the implications of the proposal to compel Hapoalim to sell its holdings in Clai Israel and Koor

Industries. The recommendations, made by Prime Minister's Office deputy director-general Moshe Leon, are to sell Hapoalim's holdings in the two large conglomerates before the bank is sold as part of the privatization The legal advisers are expected to submit their recommendations Leon's remarks contrast with the Brodet Committee report, which proposed forcing Hapoalim to dispose of either its of 1998. The Shamrock group already controls 22 percent of Koor Industries, which it acquired from Hevrat Haovdim in 1995. Hapoalim controls 26% of

Clal or Koor holdings by the end

NEW 1997 EDITIONS

▲ English-Hebrew

Marketing Glossary

Key sources in...

- ▲ Advertising ▲ Public Relations
- ▲ Market Research ▲ Broadcast and Print Media
- ▲ Marketing Services
- GOVERNMENT DIRECTORY ▲ Cable TV ▲ Major Israeli Advertisers

PROFIT FROM THE BEST Decision-

ISRAEL BUSINESS & JP Special Price

makers in the... ▲ New Netznyahu Govt and biographies of all 120 Knesset Top to Municipalities Political Parties ▲ Major Foreign Embassies and

Consulates

Government

Companies

▲ Major Business

Organizations and Largest

Assoc.

NIS 108

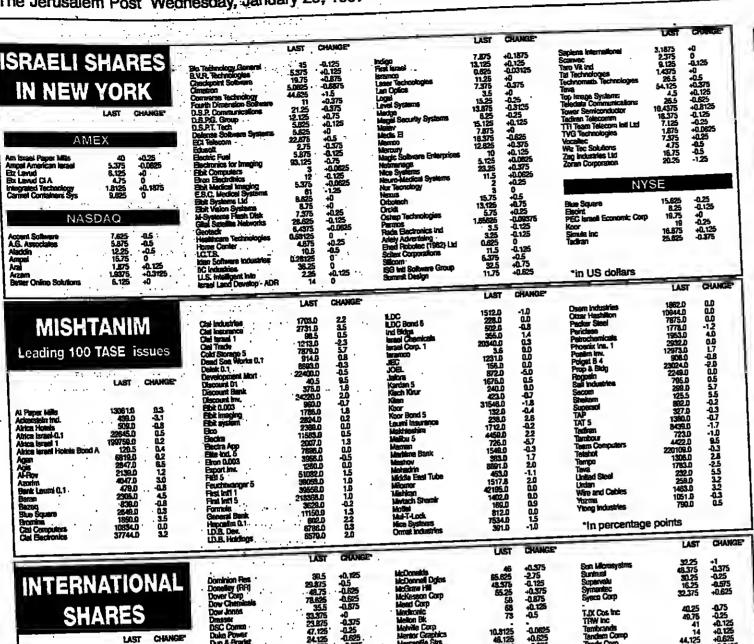

ISRAELI BUSINESS CONTACTS Special for Both Directories: NIS 199

| | Books, The Je | rusalem Post, POB 8 | i, Jenisalem 91000 | |
|-------------------------|-----------------|---|------------------------|--------|
| = | Please send m | e copies of: | | |
| 00 | C Israe | l Business & Govern | ment Directory: NIS | 108 |
| - += | 0 | t08 | | |
| 32 | 5 | Special for B | oth Directories: NIS | t99 |
| .128 2 ©je | _ | Postage : | in Israel: NIS 6 per o | order |
| 21.2 7.5 7.5 | | • | Total | NIS |
| 32-62 324-1 ordei | Please list gif | ck payable to The Je i recipient's name, a | | |
| phone: (fax: 02-6 | □ Visa | □ Isc/MCD | □ Diners | O AmEs |
| ton K: 0 mai | CC No | | p | |
| pr fa) e-i | Name | | | |
| * * * | Address | | | |
| ec | City | | Code | |
| ORDE BY | Phone (day). | | _ID No | |
| 0 | Signature | | | |

1452'en 2

44.125
14.125
14.125
13.15
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105.51
105 FINAL Corp
FPL Group
FPL Group
FPL Group
FPL Group
Fedders Corp
Fedders Corp
Fedders Corp
Fedders Corp
Fedders Corp
Fedders Corp
Freders Corp
Fred Line
Fred +0 +0 +0 +0.25 +0 +1.625 81.375 40.625 +0.375 +0.125 +1.25 +1.125 +0 +0 +0 +0 +0 Northrop Northrop Norwest Corp NSI Nymex Corp USAIR Group
USFAG Curp
US Home US Life
US Robotics US Surgical US Trust US West
United Tech
United Curp Gulech Toys
Geteventy 2000
GATX.Corp
GTE Corp
GTE Corp
GENE Corp
Generat
Gen Inc Del
Generat
Gen Inc Del
Generat
Gen Inc Del
Generat
Gen Inc Del
Gen Holes
Gen Molors
Gen Molors
Gen Molors
Gen Pelestric
Gen Molors
Gen Pelestric
Gen Molors
Gen Pelestric
Gen Pelestric
Gen Pelestric
Gen Sport
Gen Sp 25 42 55 125 27 0.125 4.125 Occidental Pet Option Corp Offic Casualty Offic Casualty Offic Edison Offic Corp Ometion Group Ometion Group Ometion Group Option High Option Highto Overses Ship Owerses Coming 1925 21.375 69.75 100.5 66.125 56.75 56.75 34.375 151.25 44.825 9.875 43.375 4125 +0.125 +0.125 +0.125 +0.825 -1 +0.5 +0.5 +0.125 +0.125 +0.125 +0.125 +0.125 +0.125 +0.125 +0.125 25.825 20 46.75 35.75 23.125 39.875 46.75 29.75 37.625 24.375 14.375 18.75 18 Armico Dames, Armico World Assistad Coal Astistad Coal Astistad Coal Astistad Coal Astistad Coal Astistad Coal Astistad Coal Auto Data Pro Auto Data Pro Auto Data Pro Auto Data Pro Auto Products VF Corp Valero Energy Varian Assoc Vigous Inc Vishay Vulcan Materials 55,75 31,25 54 34 23,675 58,25 +0 -0.375 +0.75 -0.125 -0.625 +0.375 0375 40.125 40.125 1-25 40.25 55.25 39.375 23 72.25 21.875 327 34.25 24.5 31.875 294.75 24.5 29.525 46.125 51.875 22.525 24.525 29 75 81.625 51.125 64.675 37.75 54.126 50.75 75.5 30.75 7.25 31.25 725 57 25.75 Barrica Corp Baker Highes Ball Corp Ball Corp Ball Corp Barte Core Corp Barte Core Corp Barte Core Corp Barte Corp Barte Banks Balle Mount Go Barte Banks Balle Mount Go Barte Corp Barte South Barte Hallburton
Harna (MA)
Harcoot
Harney Davidse
Harneschinger
Harratha Edi
Harris Corp
Harrisc Corp
Harrisc Corp
Harrisc Corp
Harrisc Health
Health Salining
Health Jacob Health
Harrisc Hull
Health Salining
Health Jacob Harrisch
Harrisch & Payen
Harrisch 61.55 21.55 45.125 45.125 45.125 51.1 -0.125 -0.375 -0.375 -0.25 -0.25 +0.25 +0.125 99.525 30.525 20 25.625 19.525 55.75 57.375 -1 16.875 -0.125

415 484 1182.5 1875 484.5 1885 484.5 1885 484.7 1885 484.7 1885 1885 1880.5 1880.5 Allied Domecq
BAT Inds
BT
BTR
BTR
Barclays
Beas Books
British Cass
General Electric
Grand Mot
Glazo
Guineas
Loyds Bank
Marks & Spenc
Natives Bank
Marks & Spenc
Natives Bank
Marks & Spenc
Natives Bank
Marks & Spenc
Natives
Sainsbury
Shal Transport
Libilieves PARIS Accor Ar Liquide Alcated Alethers SSN Carriel Carriegour Charpines Cub Lyon (CR) Ell Acultaine Euro Disens Lyon Eaux Michelin 8 Modifiest Perinse Perinse Perinse Perinse Perinse Seat Gobern Total 8 +0 +31 +0.5 +20 +11 +117 703 858 454.1 611 1233 3388 368 367 171 541 10,65 1491 332 562 309 142.5 368 818 674.1 +23 +8 +28 +02 +4 +4 +27 +25 +112 +32 +13.7 +26 +13.1

37.875 54.5 26.75

74875 13.525 83.5 44.75 27.125 80.25 30.25 30.25 30.25 21.25 30.25 21.25 30.25 21.25

64.5 38.125 18.17.5 38.125 38.

Qualer Oats Qualcom Quanex Corp

Quanter Cuty
Rus Nableco
Relation Purinit
Runk Organa ADR
Reycheon Cuty
Reycheon Cuty
Reycheon Relation Resolution Reych
Reychold Reych
Rus Ald Coty
Roschetty Service
Roschetty
Rosch

-0.375 -0.25 -0.375

13.875 34.5625 41.375 24.525 52.575 53.5 104.75 146.25 34.126 40 20.125 17.75

32,125 56.5 54.25

11 13.25 86.525 39.25 39 69.75 50.626 95.875 39.875 37.625 47.75

25 71.875 26.825 26.825 26.825 26.85 26.85 26.85 26.85 26.85 27.85

BM Sthools Tool Shool Tool Tool Shool Tool Shool Tool Shool Tool Tool Shool T

44.55 - 44.55 - 44.55 - 57.55

43.75 115.46 55.375 55.

21.5 33.75 34.25 3

CBS lec
CAS Servery Corp
CAS Servery Corp
CAS Servery
CAS CASPARAM
CAS ABC
CASA BAC
CASA
CASA BAC
CASA

+0.125 +0.75 +0.25

1039 49 59.1 40.1 61.55 40.2 55 40 114.1 40.4 58.3 -1.85 52.2 -1.1 59.15 40 52 "In local currencies

TASE ROUNDUP Shares close mixed

Mishtanim

237.26 🛦 +0.28%

By ROBERT DANIEL

Shares were little changed yesterday after Koor Industries Ltd.

Key Representative RatesNIS 3.3190 +0.37% Sterling NIS 5.3320 -0.46% Mark NIS 2.0062 -0.56%

NEW YORK MARKET INDEXES

NYSE STOCKS 4860

DOLLAR CROSSRATES (US)

Pound: spot Mar.Lidure (CME)
D-maric spot Mer.Lidure (CME)
S-laracc spot Mer.Lidure (CME)
Year spot Mer.Lidure (CME)
Year spot Mer.Lidure (CME)
F-laracc spot Mer.Lidure Stand P Mer.Lidure Stand P Mer.Lidure

LONDON COMMODITIES

894 1479 2225 SPOT MARKET METALS (US)

NEW YORK METAL FUTURES

Change -3.3 -0.064 -3.5 -1,05 +0.0025 Last 354 4.963 357 124.75 1.0615 Gold (Feb) Silver (Mar) Platinum (Jan) Palladium (Mar) High-grade copp LONDON METAL FIXES

SOURCE: COMMISTOCK TRADING LTD. (DATE 28-JAN-97)

DATA COMMUNICATIONS VIA AB COMPUTER SYSTEMS LINITER REPAIRS MAINTENANCE & SUPPLE

Foreign financial data courtesy of CommStock Trading Ltd. Futures, Options, Stocks, Bonds and Mutual Funds 34 Ben Yehuda St., Jerusalem Tai: 02-624-4963, 93-575 Fax: 02-625-9515

Tel Aviv shares data supplied by Pacific Mediterranean Investments, Tel. 09-958-5873. All other data supplied by Commstock Trading Ltd., Tel. 02-624-4963. Due to technical failures data may be inaccurate. The Jerusalem Post will not be held responsible for the consequences of any transaction made on the basis of these data. Readers who wish to report missing or misquoted data should do so on postcards only, addressed to Jerusalem Post Business Desk, P.O.B. 81, Jerusalem 91000

Teva Pharmaceutical Industries Ltd. fell in New York and the central bank cut ioterest The shekel weakened against the U.S. dollar to 3.319 from 3.306 yesterday, boding well for exporters. The rate cut, meanwhile, bodes well for all corporate profits. Teva and Koor, Israel's largest company, together account for nearly 20 percent of the Maof Index. Teva shares fell 2.5 percent 10 NIS 17.83 after its American depositary receipts slipped 3.6 perceot on Wall Street. Koor was off 1.75 percent to 315.46 after a 1.9% drop in the ADRs. Israel Chemicals Ltd. was the most-active issue, rising 1.5% on NIS 7 million of shares traded. Israel's chemical companies rely on exports; among them, Dead Sea Works Ltd. climbed 0.75% to Chemical 9.14, Agan 0.25% to 68.19 and Dead Sea

Manufacturers Ltd. edged up Bromine Ltd. jumped 3.5% to 18.5. Makhteshim Chemical 246.03 🛦 +0.21% Works Ltd. slipped 0.25% to 17.12. Across the Tel Aviv Stock Exchange, NIS 125.7 million of shares traded, 18% less than the month's daily average of NIS 153.9m. Eleven shares rose for every seven that fell. Bank of Israel Governor Jacob Frenkel's 0.5 percentage point cut in the central bank's benchmark interest rate "is giving people confidence that he's on a trend of more interest rate cuts," said Zvi Hoffman, the co-managing direcfor at Meitav Ltd. in Tel Aviv.

The Two-Sided Index rose 0.28% to 237.26, while the Maof Index added 0.21% to 246.03.

Frenkel cut the rate the central bank charges banks for loans to 14.2% effective tomorrow, down from 14.7% last month and 17% in July.

Lower rates help stocks by making it cheaper for companies to borrow, leaving more for profits and potentially lifting stock prices as well.

Rloomberg

WORLD MARKET ROUNDUP

US data propels Europe

LONDON (Reuter) - European bourses were jolted higher along with Wall Street yesterday when benign inflation figures from Washington reduced the chances of an early rise in US interest rates.

The Dow, which had lost oearly 200 points over the previous three sessions, opened 50 points higher and was up about 95 points, or nearly 1.5 percent, when European trading drew to a close.

The weaker-than-expected US employment costs data, which sent US Treasury bonds soaring, boosted London's blue chip FISE 100 index which had previously been languishing in negative territory fearful that the global bull market was faltering.

In late afternoon trading the FTSE shook off its torpor and strode out of the red, closing more than half a percentage point up on

It was a similar story in Frankfurt, where electronic trading closed well over 1% higher, and on the Paris bourse, where the blue chip CAC-40 index gained nearly 2%, scoring a record closing high above its previous all-time trading peak.

WALL STREET REPORT

Dow drops after soaring

Dow Jones industrial average abruptly changed direction to close lower yesterday after a powerful rally of more than 100 points on good inflation news unraveled on profit-taking.

NEW YORK (Reuter) - The Based on early and unofficial data, the Dow was down 4.61 points at 6,656.08. In the broader market, advancing issues led declines by a small margin on heavy volume of 531 million

WHERE TO GO

Notices in this feature are charged at NIS 28.08 per line, including VAT. insertion every day of the month costs NIS 520.65 per line, including

JERUSALEM Conducted Tours HEBREW UNIVERSITY. Tours of the Mount Scopus campus, in English, daily Sun.-Thur., 11 a.m. from cally Sun.-Thur., 11 a.m. from Brontman Reception Center, Shanman Administration Bldg. Buses 4a, 9, 23, 26, 28. For info, call 5882819. HADASSAH. Visit the Hadassah instal-lations, Chagall Windows. Tel. 02-6416333, 02-6776271.

TEL AVIV

TEL AVIV MUSEUM. Andres Serrano: The Morgue. Soviet Photography from the Museum collection. Lucian Freud: selection of works. Tzvi Hecker: Sunflower. Portraits: By a group of Israeli artists. Virtual Reality: The domestic and realistic in contemporary Israeli art. HELENA RUBINSTEIN PAVILION FOR CONTEMPORARY ART. Shlomo Ben-David and Amon Ben-David. The Inverted Campaign. Hours: Weekdays 10 a.m.-8 p.m. Tue. 10 a.m.-10 p.m. Fri. 10 a.m.-2 p.m. Meyerhoff Art Education Center, Tel. 6919155-8.

HAIFA WHAT'S ON IN HAIFA, dial 04-

GENERAL ASSISTANCE

628-2058.

PHARMACIES Jerusalem: Kupat Hollm Clatit, Straus A, 3 Avigdori, 670-8660; Balsam, Salah e-Oin, 627-2315; Shuafat, Shuafat Road, 581-0108; Dar Aldawa, Harod's Gate, Tel Aviv: Kupat Holim Maccabi, 7 Ha-Shia, 546-5558; Superpharm Lev Oizengoff, 50 Dizengoff, 620-0975. Till 3 a.m. Thursday: Pharma Dai Jabotinsky, 125 Ibn Gvirol, 546-2040. Till midnight: Superpharm Ramet Avw 40 Einstein, 641-3730; London Ministore Superpharm, 4 Shaul Harnelech, 696-0115. Ra'anana-Ktar Sava: Arim mali, Katznelson, Klar Sava, 767-7908.

Netanya: Trufa, 2 Herzi, 882-8656. Haifa: Balfour, 1 Massada, 862-2289. Krayot area: Hayesod, 73 Keren Hayesod, Kiryat Bialik, 870-4185. Herzilya: Clai Pharm, Beit Merkazim, 8 Maskit (cnr. Sderot Hagalim), Herzliya Pituah, 955-8472, 955-8407. Open 9 a.m.

to midnight. Upper Nazareth: Ctal Pharm, Lev Ha'ir Mail, 657-0468. Open 9 a.m. to 10 p.m.

DUTY HOSPITALS Jarusalem: Hadassah Ein Kerem (intamal, obstetrics, ophthalmology); Hadassah ML Scopus (surgery, orthopedics); Bikur Holim (pediatrics); Shaare Zedek (ophthalmology).

Tel Aviv: Tal Aviv Medical Center Dana Pediatric Hospital (pediatrics); Tel Aviv Medical Center (surgery).

Netanya; Laniado. POLICE 102 101

In emergencies dial 101 (Hebrew) or 911 (English) in most parts of the country. In addition:

In emergencies dial 101 (Hebrew) or 911 (English) in most parts of the country. In addition: Ashdod* 8551333

Nahariya" 9912333 Ashkelon 6551332 Beersheba* 6274767 Beit Shemesh 6523133 Petah Tikva* 9311111 Dan Region* 5793333 Rehovot* 9451333 Eliat* 6332444 Saled 6920333 Halfa" 8512233 lerusalem" 6523133 Tel Aviv* 5450111 Tibenas* 6792444 Kamuel 9985444 Mobile Intensive Care Unit (MICU) service in the area, around the clock.

Medical help for tourists (in English) 177-022-9110

The National Poison Control Center at Rambam Hospital 04-852-9205, 24 hours a day, for information in case of poisoning. Eran - Emotional First Aid. 1201, also: Jerusalem 561-0303, Tel Aviv 546-1111 (children/youth 696-1113), Halls 867-2222/3, Beersheba 649-4333, Netanya 862-5110, Karmlei 988-8770, Ktar Sava 767-4555, Hadera 634-6789. Wizo hotlines for battered women 02-651-4111, 03-546-1133 (also in Russian). 07-637-6310, 08-855-0506 (also in Amharic). Rape Crists Center (24 hours), Tel Aviv 523-4819, 544-9191 (men), Jerusalem 625-5558, Haifa 853-0533, Eilai 633-Hadassah Medical Organization --Israel Cancer Association support service 02-624-7676).

Kiwis survive to claim draw

AUCKLAND (Reuter) - All-rounder Nathan Astle hit an unbeaten century as New Zealand defied England yesterday with an unbroken last wicket partnership of 106 to save the first cricket Test in England, desperate for a Test victory after their disastrous tour of Zimbabwe, looked certain winners when they reduced New Zealand to 105 for eight at lunch, still needing 26 to make the tourists bat again.

Bul Astle and the tail-enders frustrated the English bowling attack throughout the final two sessions as the Canterbury allrounder advanced to his third Test century.

Simon Doull gave Astle initial support with an eggressive 26 before being yorked by Darren Gough. Then veteran pace bowler Danny Morrison, holder of the world record for the highest number of ducks in Tests, became an unlikely batting hero as he survived for 165 minutes in partnership with Astle.

England captain Mike Atherton flung all five bowlers into the attack by turn, but failed to achieve a breakthrough. Morrison was solid in defense, while Astle punished anything loose as he swept to 102 not out with 13 boundaries.

The pair added an unbroken 106 for the England, set by Frank Mooney and Jack Cowie at Leeds in 1949.

II was the third stand of more than 100 for the 10th wicket by New Zealand in Test

Earlier, fine spin bowling by left-armer Phil Tufnell, backed by seamer Alan Mullally and assisted by some rash batting shots, had put England in a commanding position.

New Zealand. resuming at 56 for three. began confidently but soon lost captain Lee Germon, needlessly run out by a direct throw by Nasser Hussain.

Justin Vaughan was then trapped lbw by Tufnell from a ball which spun viciously from the rough.

Adam Parore danced down the wickel to Tufnell and was easily stumped by Stewart

Mullally then chipped in by inducing Chris Cairns to chop a ball on to his stumps and had Dipak Patel leg before for nought last ball before lunch. Tufnell finished with three for 53 from 40

overs, while Mullally claimed two for 47 and Darren Gough took two for 66. The second Test starts in Wellington on last wicket, smashing the previous record of February 6, before which England plays a 57 for New Zealand's 10th wicket against four-day match against New Zealand A beginning in Wanganui tomorrow. Australian leg-spin twins

seal series victory
Australia's new-found leg-spin twins,
Shane Warne and Michael Bevan, grabbed 16 wickets between them to destroy a britile West Indies line-up and hand their side a series-deciding victory in the fourth Test yesterday in Adelaide. Australia won by an innings and 183 runs on the fourth day of the Test against a hap-less West Indies to take an unbeatable 3-1 lead in the best-of-five match series and retain the Frank Worrell trophy they won in the Caribbean in 1995. Australia captain Mark Taylor, who has struggled as an opening batsman this season, was delighted with the win-

"I couldn't be prouder," Taylor said. He said the series victory proved the 1995 series win, the first by any team over West Indies in 15 years, was not a flash in

"We proved that this time around, that it wasn't lucky and that variety and conquering the four fast bowlers was the way to beat the West Indies," Taylor said among a jubilant crowd at Adelaide Oval.

Taylor said he was thrilled that his decision to elevate Bevan from a part-time bowler into a front-line spinner had succeeded so spectacularly.

Bevan, originally picked three years ago as a batsman, capped bis transformation this season into a dangerous left-arm leg-spinner with 10 wickets in the match.

He took six for 82 with his bouncy wrist-spinners in the West Indies' second innings, fooling the tourists' top order with his pace and a deadly ball that spins the wrong way. Bevan, who also scored an unusually cir-cumspect 85 not out, was named man of the match for his career-best bowling perfor-mance and was understandably happy if reserved later on. "I'm on a bit of a high ar the moment," he said.

But Bevan added his elevation to frontline spinner had not yet sunk in. "I'm still sort of a part-timer. I'm proba-bly going to get a bit of stick for getting it (a 10-wicket bag) before my Test century," he

Warne, Australia's established leg-spinning wizard, showed he was still among the best in the world by taking three for 68 in the second innings and six wickets for the

Nat'l hoopsters vs. Bosnia tonight

By ARYEH DEAN COHEN

Will he or won't he? That's the question national basketball team coach Zvi Scherf has to ask about Bosnia's Nanad Markovitch - formerly of Hapoel Eilat and Hapoel Tel Aviv - regarding tonight's crucial matchup vs. Bosnia in Berlin. The injured swingman who left Eilar for Limoges a few weeks ago was hurt playing for the French side the other night, and reportedly isn't sure whether he will test his aching knee for the good of Bosnia or not. In the first encounter, Markovitch led Bosnia to victory here, scoring 40 points.

Israel will need to overcome a six-point loss in the first contest to assure itself of a berth in the European championships in June.

Several other Bosnian players are nursing injuries, which ought to help Israel's chances. Meanwhile, the Israeli side has a red-hot Adi Gordon in its ranks, who may even get a starting berth. In light of his recent European success, Gordon — who's proven clutch for the national squad before - may get the call again. Israel's opening line up will likely include Doron Sheffer, Nadav Henefeld, Motti Daniel and Ofer Fleischer, Gordon or captain Doron Jamchee could be the fifth man. Israel is again expected to be at a disadvantage underneath, but they've proven before they're capable of overcoming bigger teams with speed and shooting. Israel has a mathematical shot at advancing even if they lose tonight, providing Georgia beats Belarus tomorrow.

Last-minute efforts are being made to arrange a live TV broadcast of the game, which starts at 9 pm. At press time, it was still unclear whether ITV or Channel 33 will televise the match.

Graf

back in stride

TOKYO (Reuter) - Steffi Graf returned to tennis yesterday after one of the worst weeks of her life and looked in great form as she won an exhibition doubles match with Pam Shriver.

Shrugging off fears that her game might suffer after her father's conviction on tax evasion charges, the world No. 1 and her

American partner demolished

Japanese opponents Kyoko Nagatsuka and Yuka Yoshida 8-0

in a match limited to two service games per player. Graf, who is in Tokyo to play in the Pan Pacific women's open, showed few signs of lingering effects from a toe infection and heat exhaustion which comfibuted to her surprise fourth-round defeat

last week in the Australian Open questions about her father's conviction, rushing out of Tokyo Metropolitan Gymnasium after

A court in Mannheim, Germany, last Friday sentenced Peter Graf to three years and nine months in jail for evading tax amounting to DM

12 million ($7.4m) on his daughter's earnings. Graf, under investigation in the

The German again dodged:

in Melbourne.

the match.

Green Bay hails champs

GREEN BAY (Reuter) - Tens of thousands of Green Bay Packers fans partied in the cold and snow Monday to mob the Super Bowl champs with a red-bot welcome home parade and rally. "I feel like I'm in Times Square. It looks like New Year's eve," a local radio reporter shouted above the din as the motorcade carrying the team pushed its way through crowds choking the downtown section of this town of 96,000.

The final destination for jubilant Packers players, who beat the New England Patriots 35-21 at New Orleans' Louisiana Superdome on Sunday night for their first NFL championship in 29 years, was Lambeau Field.

About 60,000 fans paid $5 each - some much higher to scalpers to cram into the Packers' home stadium for a formal welcome ceremony. Those tickets were sold out within minutes of when they were offered last week.

A steady snow fell and temperatures hovered around 20 F (-7 C). Schools were closed. Some fans celebrated all night inside and then outside local bars, but police reported very few problems.

People crowded streets and climbed into trees along the motorcede route, forcing buses carrying the team to take a snail's pace. Confetti-making machines blew a paper blizzard from alop some buildings.

Nearly every car radio aerial in town seemed to have sprouted Packers flags - selling for $20 each - celebrating the team's tri-

There's no better place than the state of Wisconsin, said a former resident who said he got up before dawn from his home in lowa to drive to Green Bay.

Meanwhile, Super Bowl XXXI was the highest-rated telecast in Fox Network history and the fourth most-watched Super Bowl of all time, the network said.

The game received a 43.3 national household rating and a 65 share, with an estimated 128.9 million people watching all or part of the game.

The only larger audiences were Super Bowl No. 30 (Dallas-Pittsburgh) with 138.5m; No. 28 (Dallas-Buffalo) with 134.8m; and No. 27 (Dallas-Buffalo) with 133,4

HEROES' WELCOME - Reggie White waves to the crowd as the Green Bay Packers celebrate in sub-freezing Lambeau Field on Monday after winning the Superbowl.

PURCHASE/SALES

Jerusalem

WANTED

PERSONALS

General

PERSONAL

ISRAELI, PLEASANT, 1.76/39, interested in meeting Hebrew speaking wom-an. Tel. 03-874-8847, 050-803-789.

PETS

Tel Aviv

FOR SALE

BLACK STANDARD POODLE pupples, pedigreed, intelligent, sensitive, and beautiful. Tel. (03) 541–4180

VEHICLES

Jerusalem

PASSPORT

BMW 525, 1993, 57,000, excellent con-dition, less than list price. Tel. 02-561-2331. (Note corrected lel. no).

UNRESTRICTED

ARIE PALOGE - QUALITY CARS:

SELLING ?BUYING?"INSTANTCASH

Any car. Huge Inventory, Bargains. Bermett, Tet. 02-993-1493, 050-316715.

buying, selling, leasing, trading. Tel. 02-6523735, 050-240977.

Suns can't take the

MIAMI (Reuter) - Alonzo COLOR TELEVISION 18" - 20" in good Mourning scored 10 of his 20 points in the first quarter as the Miami Heat posted their most points of the season in their first home victory over the Phcenix

Suns, 125-97 on Monday. Tim Hardaway had 21 points and 10 assists for the Heat, who never trailed and shattered their previous season high of 111, set in double overtime at Sacramento ou

November 22nd. "We shot 63 percent. Man, somewhere along the way we've got to bottle that," Miami coach Pat Riley said. "The best thing about the whole game was that we bounced back from a tough loss yesterday (at New York). It was a great win.

"That was just a good old-fash-ioned spanking," Suns coach Danny Ainge said. "They were good. We couldn't stop them in the post. Their 63 percent was just a direct result of us not playing tough defense." Warriors 122, Grizzlies 97 Latrell Sprewell had 33 points and II assists and Joe Smith added 30 points to lead bost Golden State in Monday's only other game.

affair, is the top seed in the Pan in the singles of the $926,250 She will play Lisa Raymond of the US in the second round today. Canseco

OAKLAND (Reuter) - The Oakland Athletics re-acquired Jose Canseco, the singeing outfielder and designated hitter from the Boston Red Sox, in dealt again

.

2.29

....

= 0≥ 00

The Arrest

exchange for pitcher John Wasdin on Monday. "I think I'm a much better player, a much better hitter actually," Canseco said when asked about how he has matured since his last stint in Oakland. "I think if (Mark) McGwire and I can stay healthy all year, if we can average 150 to 160 games, I think that we are going to win our division."

Canseco has been on the disabled list several times since being acquired from the Texas Rangers after the 1994 season. Canseco batted 289 with 28 homers and 82 RBI last season. He demanded to be traded following the firing of manager

Kevin Kennedy.

IRFU will take no action against players

DUBLIN (Reuter) - The Irish Rngby Football Union (IRFU) said yesterday it would take no action against three players who were the subject of complaints by France after the Five Nations game in Dublin on

The French Rugby Union Federation (FFR) sent the IRFU a videotape of incidents allegedly involving hooker Keith Wood, lock forward Paddy

Johns and scrum-half Niall Hogan.
But the IRFU said in a statement it had studied the tape and found that no Irish player had committed offenses which warranted thisciplinary The FFR last week banned prop forward Franck Tournaire from their next Five Nations game for stamping on Ireland hooker Allen Clarke in

SCOREBOARD NHL - Monday's results: Chicago 2, NY Rangers 1; Ottawa 5, Tampa Bay 3; Colorado 5, Toronto 2; Dallas 7, Los Angeles 2; Anaheim 4, St Louis 1;

Vancouver 5, San Jose 2. Joseph Hoffman, Sports Editor

CLASSIFIEDS

RATES

PRICES ARE AS FOLLOWS - All rates Single Weekday - NIS 128.70 for 10 words (minimum), each additional word NIS

12.67
FRIDAY AND HOLIDAY EVE - NIS
198.90 10 words (minimum), each additional word NIS 19.89.
MONDAY, WEDNESDAY and FRIDAY (package) - NIS 292.50 for 10 words
(minimum).each additional word - NIS
20.25

29.25
WEEK RATE (6 insertions) - NIS 409.50 lor 10 words (minimum), each additional word - NIS 40.95.
FOUR FRIDAYS (package) - NIS 526.50 for 10 words (minimum), each additional word - NIS 52.65.
MONTHLY (24 insertions) - NIS 994.50 years (minimum), each additional tor 10 words (minimum), each additional word - NIS 99.45. New Rates are valid until Februery

DEADLINES offices: Jerusalem - weekdays: 12 noon the day before publication; for Friday 4 p.m. on Tel Aviv end Halfa - weekdays: 12 noon, 2 days before publication; for Friday and Sunday: 4 p.m. Thursday in Tel Aviv end 12 noon Thursday in Haite. For telephone enquiries please call

DWELLINGS General

WHERE TO STAY

THE JERUSALEM INN at the City Center - double rooms with private batteroom, T.V., telephone, $36-$48 until 20/3/97. Tel. 02-625-2757, Fax: 02-625-1297. DWELLINGS

Jerusalem Area

FLAT MATE

YOUNG LADY 26, secular, looking lor similar to shere apartment in Jeruselem erea or surrounds. Call Michele 02-5836359-evenings 59-evenings

HOUSE SITTING

YOUNG WOMAN, RESPONSIBLE, (was officer in Air Force) evailable imme-dielely to care for your home Tel 02-6568431 Hadas

RENTALS

GERMAN COLONY, UNIQUE, 3 or 4, garden, basement, parking, long term. Immediale. (No commission). DIVIROLLI SIANI. Tel 02-5612424.

SALES REHAVIA/SHA'AREI CHESED, BAR-GAIN of the yeer! 320 sq.m., only $895,000. Tel. 02-538-4314, 02-538-6348.

GERMAN COLONY, LARGE, unique 2,3 or 4. Basement, garden, immediate (no on a pasament, garden, immediate (no commissions). DIVIROLLI SIANI. Tel. 82-561-2424. KATAMON, 1.5, GROUND Hoor, compact, renoveted, quiet, in altors. Tel. 02-678-0670.

REHAVIA (ABARBANEL), LUXURIOUS apartment, 5 rooms, spacious. Broker. Tel Aviv DWELLINGS

Tel Aviv

RENTALS LUXURIOUS APARTMENT, FULLY furnished. Short/long lerm. Tel. 03-605-5704, tax. 03-605-0075.

OLD KATAMON, OUIET, 3 1/2, lerge, solar heating, ground floor, immediale. Tel. 02-622-1283.

BEAUTIFUL APARTMENTS / STUDIO-2 rooms, Ben Gurion Blvd., lourists / busirooms, een Gurion Blvd., tourists / busi-nessmen, short/long lerm. Tel. 03-696-2002 051-258027

BEN YEHUDA, STUDIO apartment and 2 room apartment, fully lumished. Short/long lerm. Tel. 052-683-063 (NS).

SAVION, FOR RENT, large villa, very luxurious, + pool. Sull diplomet. Exclu-sive to DE BOTON REALTY, Tel. 03-534-3356.

SHIKUN DAN, BEAUTIFUL new coltage, 6 + large basement, air-conditionad. YAEL REALTOR (Malden]. Tel. 03-642-

SALES

GIVAT HAPRAHIM, QUIET, luxunous, 5, newish + balcony, possibly lurnished. YAEL REALTOR. (Malden]. Tel. 03-642-

TEL AVIV, 2 APARTMENTS, each 3 rooms, excellent location, bright, quiet. Tel. 03-691-2405, 03-546-9643.

DWELLINGS

Southern Coast

RENTALS ASHDOD YOD-GIMMEL - new, 3-room epl., 10 min welking distance from beech, 6th floor, elevator under con-struction, $450. Tel. 02-531-5601 - day. DWELLINGS

> Sharon Area SALES/RENTALS

HERZLIYA PITUAHI LUXURIOUS home + hell dunem, possibility for pool. For sale/renl. Tel. 050-231-725, (09)-955-

DWELLINGS Halfa and North

SALES

SAFED, 3 ROOMS + garden, improved, high standard, perquet llooring, a/c, kilchen cabinets. All new, ready for occupation. Last price $110,000. Tel. (06)

SITUATIONS VACANT

Jerusalem MEDICAL/NURSING HYGIENIST AND EXPERIENCED, motivated Dental assistant, English / He-brew speaker. Tel. 02-582-6786. Tel Aviv

ACADEMIC TECHNICAL ASSISTANT TO Patent Atlorney. Greduate / semi in exact sciences. Fax CV , 03-510-3844.

> HOUSEHOLD HELP MMEDIATE JOBS AVAILABLE, Iriendliest families, best conditions, the agen

> DIPLOMAT ENGLISH FAMILY Seeks

South African au pair in central Tel Aviv special conditions. Tel. 03-6201195, 052-452002. AU PAIR LIVE-OUT, Sunday - Thursday, 10 - 8. Baby + housework. Tel. 03-525-3771, 03-524-3942.

ENGLISH SPEAKING NANNY / housekeeper (Sundey - Thursday , 8-5), for newborn. Tel. 03-642-6515.

HIGH SALARY FOR 1 child, good con-ditions. Tel. 03-560-9531. MISC.

DANISH AND FINNISH speakers wanted for permanent job in Ramal Gen. High salary. Call Malene at Tel. 03-575-8255. OFFICE STAFF export company. Tel. 03-570-4111. Ze

ENGLISH/HEBREW

SECRETARY FOR HI-TECH company. English mother tongue, spoken Hebrew, live dey week. Tel. Jenel , 03-598-

SEEKING SHORTHAND-TYPIST, English, Hebrew, P.O.B. 606, Tel Aviv 61006. SALES PERSONNEL

SALESWOMAN NEEDED, good pre-sentation, age 25-35 for exclusive bou-lique. Kikar Hemedina. Tel. 03-896-

SITUATIONS VACANT Dan Region

SITUATIONS VACANT

OFFICE STAFF HI-TECH COMPANY SEEKS executive secretary, English mother longue + typ-lng, Tel. (03) 525-0975, (09) 950-5425.

Sharon Area HOUSEHOLD HELP AU PAIR, KFAR HESS (Sharon), live-in, 5 days. Tel. 09-796-2911 (evenings), 03-

549-6385 (Tali). OFFICE STAFF ENGLISH / HEBREW SECRETARY

FULL day, Ra'anana (Ind. area). Im diata. Tel. 09-742-1237.

IMPORT COMPANY, RA'ANANA, 1071 time, good English / Hebrew, Tel. 09-774-1636.

BIO RAD

SPEAKING

Bio Rad Israel is a high tech company offering exciting positions in a friendly work environment

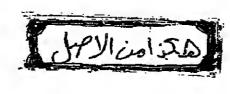

b. Windows NT experience (B.Sc)

For a challenging new project in an Internet environment we require: C++ software engineers with: a. Real time application experience (B.Sc.)

Minimum 2 years experience in Object Oriented environment. Preference to applicants fluent in English, Software Development in a PC environment and capable of working in a team. Writer Technicai

Minimum 2 years experience. Background in instrumentation, content writing for internet and chemistry an advantage. English mother tongue. Interested candidates may forward their resume, stating position 1a,1b or 2 to:

Blo-Rad Israel, P.O. Box 5044 Rishon Le Zion 75150, or by fax on 03-9617582

CRITIC'S CHOICE

In 'The First Wives Club,' (from left) Goldie Hawn, Diane

Argentina's most famous first lady. According to Parker and Oliver Stone's fluid adaptation of the musical about the poor, illeginimate country girl turned populist folk hero, Eva Perón was ambitious, glamorous and extremely calculating, every bit the rags-to-rock-star politician. Madonna both sings beautifully here and embodies Evita's charismatic presence in a way that obviously can't be called modest - the role is too huge and virtuosic for that

- but which is, somehow self-effacing. She becomes Evita, as few other pop icons could when faced with such a task. Also with Antonio Banderas and Jonathan Pryce. (English lyrics, Hebrew subti-tles. Parental guidance suggested.)

★★1/2 THE FIRST WIVES CLUB - A blackish comedy with Diane Keaton, Goldie Hawn and Bette Midler as friends who join together to avenge themselves on husbands who left them for younger women, this high-concept movie derives most of its appeal from the charm of its three stars. The film seems at first to want to be a stinging - and pre-sumably cathartic - satire of the painful dilemma facing many real women. But director Hugh Wilson and screenwriter Robert Harlin, working from Olivia Goldsmith's novel, don't have anything near the sharp claws required to draw the metaphoric blood this project demands. They can't decide if it's dark humor they're after or an uplifting, therapeutic love-in about the need for empowerment in sisterhood. So the picture waffles around grotesquely, indulging in lots of broad physical humor and finally bottoming out in cuddly everyone-hug-your-best-girlfiiend sentiment. (English dialogue, Hebrew subtitles. Parental guidance suggested.)

CRYPTIC CROSSWORD

24 Hold back holiday—wet

25 Quiet fib returned by a girl

26 With passion, read out

27 Put ball inte play, capturing point with deflection (6)

1 Lying about improvement in health? (4-4)

2 Sema fare badly? That's

3 Ringlets, looking artificial but absolutely genuine (8)

5 Can loek inside brownish-coloured melon (10)

11111

· DOMN -

terrible (8)

scripture extremely loudly (8)

weather (8)

Keaton and Bette Midler take revenge on erring busbands.

િન્દું કે કે કેફ્ફિક્સ કર્યું હોંએ ફ્રમ્યું માન જેવા છે. જો અન

हिन्द्र अनुसरिक्षेत्र (१४०) र ४

CLASSICAL

MUSIC

MICHAEL AJZENSTADT

Jerusalem Sym

Hall in Jerusalem.

Aldo Ceccato leads the Schoenberg's most evocative, poetic and dramatic symphonic poem, Pelleas und Melisande, as well as in Brahms's third symphony.

Tonight and tomorrow (8) at the Henry Crown Symphony

The Efroni Choir under its conductor Maya Shavit performs tonight (8:30) at the Gallery of the Tel Aviv

University within the very

the Gallery chamber-concert series. The program comprises songs from the Renaissance, Israeli songs and traditional Japanese songs. Also on the program is recorder music performed by the Kfar Sava

ENGLISH THEATER

HELEN KAYE

Musical buffs can sit back and enjoy as the energetic cast of Daniel Schwartzman's WOB (that's Way Off Broadway) Musical Theater launches into

Fascinating Rhythms, which features a 40-minute version of Chicago in the first half and a Gershwin medley in the second. Director Schwartzman adapted the '20s story of a woman who really does get away with mander for the eight-member (so far) theater he founded just a year ago. Tonight at ZOA

ADINA HOFFMAN

 EVITA - Who would have guessed it?

Alan Parker's much-hyped screen rendition of the

Andrew Lloyd Webber/Iim Rice rock opera is an exciting movie, a dynamically sustained dramatic and musical work that defies the disjointed video-clip format that the endless TV spots might have led one to expect. The rumors about Madonna are true, too; she seems to have been born to play the role of

FILM

House in Tel Aviv at 8:30 p.m.

D S

1 Decline

trade (6)

worthless (6)

Sword (8)

ACROSS

4 The Case of the Unused

9 Investor receiving money from ship in uefarieus

10 A single ship is a joke, in brief (3-5)

11 Move king to safety in stronghold (6)

12 Fawlty in charge of a magnificent church (8)

14 Thoughtfulness of maiden

in state of downfall (10)

13 Final result—cup trodden

22 Hot and stuffy, without

23 Up-to-date method to lead and smashed (3,7)

any cover (8)

the Navy (6) something

PERCY

popular Colors and Tones in Recorder Ensemble.

Symphony

100 miles or many

A CONTRACTOR The Control of the Control d the second 2.7 ('anset

The second is player

The state of the s

Andreas Aldres Sur is and 200 C ## # W A ...

Graf oack i

ARRESTS TO LOS ON

(A)

garage a gia a non en en A Company of the Comp : ... :

dealt age to A's

 $\nabla^{W_{n+1}} = \nabla^{W_{n+1}}$ Market 1

stride

Carrer . · --manage to the second

4 3- - er dies

強ながら

Service Services ---216

A PARTY OF THE PAR No su

Carrie as

Alle Aller Street A. Seller Seller Part . Starts in Section Age of the second 100 m Constant

... e

y. 9 A STATE OF THE STA S. Sales and and.

Mark ... $\mathcal{F}_{A}(m) = 0$ Marci et 1. ****

ake 1

ACROSS 1 Brief (5) 4 Pastry cover (5) 10 Juicy fruit (7) 11 Recess (5) 12 Stringed 12 Stringed instrument (5) 18 Put an end to (7) 15 Roman emperor 17 Anxiety (6) 19 Proverb (5) 22 Brief message (4)

20 Interrogate a spy 22 Brief message (47)
25 Taxi (7)
27 Noisy assembly (5)
29 Advanced (5)
30 Of the hip (7)
31 List of competitors (5)
32 Behind (5) (7)
21 Smudge (5)
23 Corpulant (5)
24 Loose (5)
26 Apple drink (5)
28 Take a dip (5)

E CHANNEL 1 6:30 News flash 6:31 News in Arabic 6:45 Good Moming Israel

EDUCATIONAL TV

8:00 On War and Peace 8:30 How to Draw Cartoons 9:00 Social Sciences 9:30 English 9:45 Programs for the very young 10:15 100 Years of Zionism 11:15 Geography 11:40 Judais 12:05 Music 12:35 Science and Technology 18:00 In the Heat of the Night 14:00 Surprise Train 14:20 Kity Cat and Tommy 14:35 Babar the Elephant 15:00 Animats E CHANNEL 1

15:30 Motornica from Mars 15:50 Booly 16:00 Who's Airaid of the 16:25 Zap to Gimmel Gartield 15:50 Zap to First 15:59 A New Evening 17:34 Zappy Culture 18:15 News in English

ARABIC PROGRAMS 18:30 Family Matters 18:55 Ramadan program 19:00 News

HEBREW PROGRAMS
19:30 News flash
19:31 Juliebox of Hits
- joint broadcast with
Radio 3
20:00 News 20:00 News 20:45 Conference Call - talk show with Nissim Mishal 21:15 Bus No. 300 part 3 22-10 No Man's Land 23:00 Keeping Up Appearances 23:30 News

ECHANNEL 2 6:15 Today's

Programs 6:30 Scoobydoo 7:00 The Finistones 7:30 The Five Mrs. 8:00 Dame Edna's Neighbourhood Watch 8:30 Angels Among 9:25 Fine Things -based on the novel by Danielle Steele 10:20 The President's Child - feature film

12:00 Lunch Break 12:30 Health 14:00 Echo Point 14:30 Tic Tac - quiz show 15:00 Top Cat 15:30 Dave's World 16:00 The Bold and the

17:00 News magazine 17:30 SporTV - for youth 18:00 Senora 19:00 Family Album 20:00 News 20:30 Wheel of

Fortune 21:05 Fried Green 21:05 Fried Green Tornatoes (1991) - a story of two pairs of women thends, one in the present, the other in the past. With Kathy Bates, Mary
Stuart Masterson,
Mary-Louise Parker
and Lessica Tandy. and Jessica Tandy. (130 mins.) 22:35 Synergy – Yaron London inter-views Yitzhak Moda'i and Shlomo Lahat 00:00 News

00:05 Synergy - con-tinued

6 Finish we hear beside this sea (6) 7 A loose woman relative? (6)

8 Day in the city—an African one (6) 13 Put up with whisky-maker's inactivity (10)

15 Attend demonstration to provide evidence (2,2,4) 16 Better water feuud in America (6)

17 Time long ago when one was in the theatre (5,3) 19 Mountain guida uses unusual phrase (6)

20 Avoided the fog, we're told 21 Badly managed, but I shall be in the race (3-3)

SOLUTIONS

Yesterday's Quick Solution ACROSS: 1 Farmer, 4 Caasa, 8 Antic, 9 Travail, 19 Panoply, 11 Less, 12 Sew, 14 Deed, 15 Aris, 18 End, 21 Save, 23 Recover, 25 Anxious, 26 Faint, 27 Liner, 28 Alberts Allogs. 1 Frappe, 2 Retinue, 3 DOWN: 1 Frappe, 2 Retinue, 3 Escapade, 4 Clap, 5 Abese, 6 Enlist, 7 Stays, 13 Watchful, 16 Invoice, 17 Aspail, 19 Dress, 29 Writhe, 22 Vices, 24 Sour.

QUICK CROSSWORD DOWN 2 Wading bird (5) 3 Mammals (7) 5 Be sufficient for (3,2) (3,2) 6 Coarse cloth (7) 7 African snake (5) 8 Arab perfume (5) 9 Indian capital (5) 14 Sance jug (4) 16 Sicilian volcano 18 Cotton cloth (7)

(1991) – a paranoid storekeeper in Georgia in the Forties shorts a 12-year-old black girl. With Dennis Hopper and Barbara. Hershey. (100 mirs.) 2-25 On the Edge of

JORDAN TV

13:00 Programs for Paraden 13:30 Cartoons 14:30 Escape from Jupiter – science fic-tion tion 15:00 Movie 15:50 Programs for Ramadan 17:30 The Muppet

Show 18:00 French programs
19:30 News headines
19:35 Bakersfield PD
20:00 Oriental Rugs
20:30 Challenges
21:10 NBA Basketball
22:00 News in English
22:25 Journey into Islam 23:00 Cobra 23:50 Mini-series 1:15 Ramadan talks

MIDDLE EAST TV

7:00 TV Shop 14:30 The 700 Club 15:00 Sandokan 15:25 Sturitwoman ieature film 16:55 Family Challenge 17:40 Family Matters 16:05 Saved by the

16:05 Saved by the Beil 18:30 Larry King 19:30 World News Tonight 20:00 Coach 20:25 Dave's World 20:50 Newhert 21:15 Tad – feature

23:00 CNN 00:00 Quantum CABLE

■ ITV 3 (33) 16:00 Cartoons 16:30 Yasin and Bahaya 17:15 Discussion in Arabic 18:00 Amores 00:00 Verse of the 19:00 News in Arabic

19:30 Documentary in 20:00 News 20:45 Are You Being Served? 21:15 Phil Collins 22:15 Freddy Starr 22:45 50 Years of the Paris Lido (rpl)

■ ETV 2 (23) 15:30 All Together Now 16:00 100 Years of

Zionism 16:30 Pillar of Fire 17:30 Phenomenal 18:00 Welcome to France France Relations 19:00 On War and

Peace 19:30 Vis à Vis 20:00 A New Evening, with Russian subtitles 20:30 Basic Arabic 21:00 Star Trek - The Next Generation 21:45 Pop Songs 22:00 Zombit 22:30 1995 Montreal Jazz Festival: Brian Seizer

(mt) 18:00 Hugo 18:30 Looney Toons 18:40 Tasmania 19:00 Little Flying 23:30 Evolutionary Trends FAMILY CHANNEL

8:00 Oprah Winfrey (rpt) 9:00 One Life to Live (rpt) 9:45 The Young and the Restless (rpt) 10:30 Days of Our Lives (rpt) 11:20 Perta Negra (rpt) 12:10 Neighbors (rpt) 12:35 Dallas (rpt) 13:30 Pursuit of

21:40 Savannah 22:30 Silk Stalkings 23:20 Night Stand with Dick Dietrick 23:45 Law and Order 00:30 ENG 1:20 North of 60 MOVIE CHANNEL 11:30 Funny Farm (1982) (rpt) 13:10 Red Sun (1971) (mt) 15:05 A Bear Named

Happiness 14:10 Rosie O'Neil 15:00 Oprah Wintrey 15:50 Days of Our

16:40 Neighbors 17:00 Dallas 18:00 One Life to Live 18:45 The Young and the Restless 19:30 Local broadcast 20:00 Parla Negra 20:50 Metrose Place

15:05 A Bear Named Arthur (1992) (ppt) 16:40 Gun Bus (1990) - two convicted crimi-nals are sent to fight at the front during WWI. Instead of fighting they have tun in Paris and get involved in a hair-raising adventure (88 mins.) mins.)
18:10 Special report on First Wives Club
18:35 Yes, Virginia,
There is a Santa Claus (1991) (rpt) 20:10 Country (1984)

(mt)
22:00 Back of Beyond (1995) – Australian suspense. A young man opens a gas station in the desert.
Then a beautiful con artist and two accomplices turn his life upside down. (81

(rpt) 12:30 Hugo

13:00 Surprise Garden

King 14:30 Nils Holgerssor 15:00 The Center of Things 15:15 Pink Panther

Show 15:50 Mirror, Mirror

Things 16:35 Welcome

ING (6)

16:15 The Center of mins.) 23:30 The Good Mother (1988) — a divorces raising her daughter is sued for custody by her conservative ex. With Diane Keaton and Lam Nessent (103) Liam Neeson. (103 1:15 A Bronx Tale

(1993) (rpt) 3:20 Top Line (1988) MI CHILDREN (6)

6:30 Cartoons 9:00 Nils Holgersson 9:30 The Center of 14:00 Open University Things (rpt) 9:45 Pink Panther (rpt) 16:00 Cats (rpt) 17:00 Chewing Gum, a Century of Sticky Show 10:05 The Center of Things 10:20 The Adventures of Pete and Pete 10:45 The Center of (rpt) 20:00 A Season in Hell - a look at buimia, 21:00 World of Geo: Zanzibar - the exotic spice island is recover-Things 11:05 Hangin' with Mr. Cooper 11:30 Little University 12:00 Gust -Children's Olympics

ing from communism and colonialism amidst rain forests and reefs 22-00 Heart of Healing, part 5 – Coping with Crisis 23:00 A Season in 13:10 Avenger - - - -Penguins 13:30 Blinky Bill 14:00 Simbe the Lion

Hell (rpt) 00:00 Open University CHANNEL 6:00 The Selina Scott

Show 7:00 The Ticket 7:30 NBC Morning News 6:00 Today 10:00 Wall Street Morning Reports 11:00 European Money Freshmen 17:05 Little University 17:30 Gust -Children's Olympics Wheel 15:30 Wall Street Morning Reports 17:00 MSNBC - The

Site 18:00 National Geographic 19:00 The Wine Bears 19:30 Ital and Friends 19:00 The Wine
Express - Baden
19:30 The Ticket
20:00 The Selina
Scott Show
21:00 Dateline
22:00 Ski Jumping from Colorado
23:00 The Tonight
Show with Jay Leno
00:00 Late Night with Conan O'Brien
1:00 Later with Greg Kinnear - children's talk show 20:10 Rocko's Modern Life 20:25 Married with Children 20:50 Roseanne 21:15 Lois and Clark SECOND SHOW-

22:00 The Clockmaker (French,

PRIME 6 8 Ital and Friends Local broadcast News flash Jukebox of Hīts A Season in Heli Perta Negra Rocko's Modern Life News 20:00 Married with Children 20:30 Metrose Place Nissim Mishal Fried Gree Tornatoes Lois and Clark Zanzibar 21:00 Bus No. 300 part 3 Savannah 21:30 Heart of Healing Back of Beyond The Clockmake 22:00 Ne Man's Synergy -Yaron London Silk Stalkings 22:30 A Season in Heli (npt) Keeping Up Appearance 23:00

1:30 NBC News 2:00 The Tonight Show with Jay Leno 3:00 MSNBC -1973) – Bertrand Tavernier's first film, based on a novel by Georges Simenon. A small-trawn clockmaker is shocked to discover that his son and his. Internight STAR PLUS that his son and his girtinend have mur-dered the owner of 6:00 Ciao Italia red the owner of the local factory and are on the run. With

6:00 Ciao Italia 6:30 El TV 7:00 Kate and Allie 7:30 Oprah Winfrey 8:30 Chicago Hope 9:30 Santa Barbara 10:30 The Bold and the Beautiful 11:00 The Reporter Philippe Noiret and Jean Rochefort. (100 mins.) 23:45 The Householder (1963) first cooperation between producer 11:30 Buniyaad 12:00 Home and Away 12:30 Land of the Giants 13:00 Black Beauty

Ismail Merchant and director James Ivory. naive Indian school naive indian school-teacher and his wife learn to adjust to the marriage forced upon them. With Shashi 14:00 Kate and Affie 14:30 Ciao Italia 15:00 The Road Show Kapoor (97 mins.) 15:30 News in Hindi 16:00 Small Wonder DISCOVERY (8)

16:30 The Bold and the 16:30 The bod also die Beautiful 17:00 Hindi program 17:30 Star News 18:00 'Alio 'Alio 6:00 Open University

- Greenpeape Years;
Bilingual Baby
12:00 Cats (rpt)
13:00 Chewing Gum, a Century of Sticky Habit (rpt)
14:00 Open University 18:30 Baywatch 19:30 The Bold and the eartiful. 20:00 Santa Barbara

21:00 Beverly Hills 22:00 Picket Fences 23:00 Quincy 00:00 Oprah Winfrey 1:00 Barnaby Jones 2:00 Home and Away 2:30 The Suffivans Habit (rpt) 18:00 Open University EL CHANNEL 5

> 6:30 Bodies in Motion 16:00 Bodies in Motion 16:30 Basketball: A look at last year's Israel vs. Bosnia 17:30 National League

18:30 European Handball Championship qualityvs. Greece 20:00 Ice Skating 20:55 Sports bloopers

(rpt) 21:15 Coca-Cola Cup Stockport 23:34 Motorcross Rally, Ein Harod (npt) ■ EUROSPORT

9:30 Freestyle Skiing: World Championship, US (rpt) 10:30 Ski Jumping: World Cup, Japan 11:30 Swimming: World Cup, Scotland (rpt) 13:00 Skiing Magazine 13:30 Alpine Skiing: Menta World Cup. Switzerland – live

14:30 Slam 15:00 Freestyle Skiing: World Championship, Canada

Newshour 16:30 The Clothes Show (rpt) 17:05 The Earth in Balance (rpt) 18:30 Tomorrow's World (rpt) 19:30 Holiday (rpt) 22:05 The Firing Line -tribute to TV journalism in conflict areas 23:30 Top Gear 00:00 World Business

CNN News throughout the 6:30 Investigative

14:30 World Sport 15:00 Asian News 15:30 Business Asia 16:00 Larry King Live (rpt) 17:30 World Sport (rpi) 18:30 Earth Matters 19:30 Q & A

21:00 World Business Today 21:30 CNN World Today Update 00:30 World Sport 1:00 World News

RADIO

6:30 Tennis: Australian 6:30 Tennis: Australian Open – Men's Singles Finals (rpt) 10:30 Rugby: Heineken Club Championship 11:30 Table Tennis: ITTF Pro Tour English Open 13:00 Cricket: India Tour of South Africa highlights 14:30 Cricket: India Tour of South Africa -South Africa vs. Zimbabwe – five 22:30 Golf: Best of China

Open 00:30 Thai Kickboxing 1:30 Table Tennis: ITTF Pro Tour English

16:00 Soccer. World

Cup qualifying match-es - Portugal vs.

France (rpt) 17:00 Alpine Skiling

live 20:00 Motorsports

Special 18:00 Swimming: World Cup, Scotland —

Megazine
Megazine
21:00 Aerobics:
German Grand Prix
22:00 English Scocer:
1990 FA Cup Final -

Man. Utd. vs. Crystal

Raily (rpt) 1:00 Tennis: ATP Tour

PRIME SPORTS

6:00 Indian League

Palace 00:00 Dakar 1997

1:30 Boxing

Soccer

BBC WORLD News on the hour 6:05 The Earth in Balance – with Prince Charles (rpt) 10:05 Horizon (rpt) 11:30 Firm 97 (rpt) 14:15 Panorama (pt) 15:15 World Business

Report 7:30 inside Politics 8:30 Moneyline (rpt) 9:30 World Sports 10:30 Showbiz Today 11:30 CNN Newsroom 12:30 World Report 13:30 CNN American Edition 13:45 Q & A 14:00 Asian News

22:00 Larry King Live (rpt) 23-00 European News Report 00:00 World Business 2:30 Moneyline 3:00 Headline News

W VOICE OF MUSIC

6:06 Morning Concert 9:05 Schubert: Piano trio In 8 flat (H. and Y. Menuhin, Gendron); Menuhin, Genoron); Beethoven: Septet in B flat op 20 (members of St Martin); Mahler: Symphony no 5;
Schumann: Abegg
Variations (Arrau) 12:00 Light Classical works by Nino Rota 13:00 Countertenor Gerard Lesne -Monteverdi: Salve Regina motel: Romances and canti-gos from Portugal 14:06 Keys 16:00 Vivaldi: Invicti Jubilate: Bach: Harpsichord concerto in F minor; Beethoven: Diabelli Variations 18:00 Debussy: Petite Suite ; Chopin: Fantaisie in F minor op 49; Bellink Katz); Widor: Romance for flute and piano; Schumann: Fantasiestücke (Israel Piano Trio); Pot Sonata for cello and plano; Fauré: String quartet no 1 in C minor op 15 (Nash minor op 15 (Nash Ens); Rachmaninoff; Vocalise (St Petersburg PO/Jansons) 20:05 Live broadcast from Henry Crown Auditorium – Jerusalem Symphony Orchestra-IBA cond. Aldo Ceccatio.

Brahms: Symphony
no 3; Schoenberg:
Pelleas et Melisande
23:00 Golden Generation - Pro Arte Quartet, Haydn: String quartet in E flat op 76/4; Dvorak: Piano quintet in A op 81 (with Schnabel)

MOVIES

JERUSALEM
CINEMATHEOUE
Cold Contintor Farm 7 * Short Cuts 9:30
* Fargodocument 1
Jerusalem Mall (Malina) * 6788448 First
Jerusalem Mall (Malina) * 6788448 First Wives Club • Glimmer Man •
DaylighteMr. Reliable 4:45, 7:15, 9:45 *
Surviving Picasso
Dragonineart 4:45 * A Time to KilleSleepers 4:20, 7:15, 10 * Eddie
4:45, 7:15 JERUSALEM THEATER 20
Marcus St. * 5610011 Breeking the Waves 6, 9 * Jene Eyre 7, 9:30 RAV
CHEN 1-7 * 6792799 Credit Card
Reservations * 6794477 Rav-Mecher
Building, 19 Hatoman St., Taipiot Ransom
5, 7:15, 9:45 * Enma 5, 7:30, 9:45 * The Mirror Has Two Faces 4:45, 7:15, 9:45 *
Evita 4:30, 7:15, 9:45 * Some Mother's Son 5, 7:30, 9:45 * Long Kiss
Goodnight 5, 7:30, 9:45 * Long Kiss
Fill Sylving Sylving Striplease
4:45, 7:15, 9:45 * La Ceremonie weekdays 5
TEL AVIV

446, 7:15, 9:45 SMADIAR Secrets and Lies 7:15, 9:45 * La Ceremonie week-days 5 * TEL AVIV CINEMATHEQUE Breaking the Waves 4, 7, 10 * Lola 7 * Marco Polo - The Missing Crapter 9:45 GAT Evits 4:30, 7:15, 9:45 GORDO * 52:36932 Priscilla 8, 10 * Citizen Kene 8 G.G. HOD 1-4 * 52:26226 Hod Passage, 101 Dizengoff St. First Wives Club 5, 7:30, 10 * Gilmmer Man 5, 7:30, 10 * Surviving Picasso 5, 7:30, 10 * Surviving Sits, 11:15, 7:30, 10 * Surviving Sits, 11:15, 7:30, 10 * Antonia's Line 11:15 * Am. 5:15 * La Ceremonie 11:45 am., 2:15, 7:30, 10 * Antonia's Line 11:15 * The Truth About Cats and Dogs 11 am., 3, 4:45, 7:30 G.G. PEER First Wives Caubellir, Realable 5, 7:30, 10 * Surviving Picasso 5, 7:30, 10 * A Time to Kill 4:30, 7:15, 10 RAV-CHEN Surviving Sits of Center Ransom 2:30, 5:7:30, 9:45 * Long Kias Goodnicht 11:30 am., 2:30, 5, 7:30, 9:45 * Last ManStanding 5, 7:30, 9:45 * Long Kias Goodnicht 11:30 am., 2:30, 5, 7:30, 9:45 * Long Kias Goodnicht 11:30 am., 2:30, 5, 7:30, 9:45 * Long Kias Goodnicht 11:30 am., 2:30, 5, 7:30, 9:45 * Long Kias Goodnicht 11:30 am., 2:30, 5, 7:30, 9:45 * Long Kias Goodnicht 11:30 am., 2:30, 5, 7:30, 9:45 * Long Kias Goodnicht 11:30 am., 2:30, 5, 7:30, 9:45 * Long Kias Goodnicht 11:30 am., 2:30, 5, 7:30, 9:45 * Long Kias Goodnicht 11:30 am., 2:30, 5, 7:30, 9:45 * Long Kias Goodnicht 11:30 am., 2:30, 5, 7:30, 9:45 * Long Kias Goodnicht 11:30 am., 2:30, 5, 7:30, 9:45 * Long Kias Goodnicht 11:30 am., 2:30, 5, 7:30, 9:45 * Long Kias Goodnicht 11:30 am., 2:30, 5, 7:30, 9:45 * Long Kias Goodnicht 11:30 am., 2:30, 5, 7:30, 9:45 * Long Kias Goodnicht 11:30 am., 2:30, 5, 7:30, 9:45 * Long Kias Goodnicht 11:30 am., 2:30, 5, 7:30, 9:45 * Long Kias Goodnicht 11:30 am., 2:30, 5, 7:30, 9:45 * Long Kias Goodnicht 11:30 am., 2:30, 5, 7:30, 9:45 * Long Kias Goodnicht 11:30 am., 2:30, 5, 7:30, 9:45 * Lon

HAIFA CINEMA CAFÉ AMAMI = 8325755 CENTEMA CAFE AMAMI # 8325755
Breaking the Waves 6.45, 9.30 * La Ceremonies 7:15, 9.30 ATZMON
Daylight@Trainspotting 4:30, 7, 9:15 *
Dragonheert 4:30, 7, 9:30 * Feeling
Minnesota 4:15, 8:45, 9:15 * The Truth Minnesota 4:15, 8:45, 9:15 * The Truth About Cats and Dogs 4:15, 6:45, 9:15 CINEMATHEQUE A Lesson in Love 6:30 * Scenes From a Martiage 8:30 GLOBECITY Sleepers 4:45, 7:15, 10 * Daylight®Jane EyreeFirst Wives Club 4:45, 7:15, 9:45 * Mr. Reliable 4:30, 7:15, 9:30 * Sleepers 4:15, 6:45, 9:30 * Jane Eyre 4:30, 7, 9:30 * RAV-GAT 1-2 * 8674311 Long Kiss Goodnight®Ransom 4:30, 7, 9:30 * The Mirror Has Two Faces 4:30, 7, 9:30 * The Mirror Has Two Faces 4:30, 7, 9:30 * She's the One 4:45, 7, 9:30 * RAV-GR 1-3 * 8246553 The Mirror Has Two Faces 4:30, 7, 9:30 * AFULA RAV CHEN Two Much 7, 9:30 * ARV CHEN Two Much 7, 9:30 * AFULA RAV CHEN Two Much 7, 9:30 * Ransom 7, 9:30 * Long Kiss Goodnight

7,930
ARAD
STAR Daylight 7:15, 9:45 * That Thing
You Do 7:30 * Long Kiss Goodnight
9:45 * Emma 7:15, 9:45 ARIEL

9:45 * Emitta 7:15, 9:45 ARIEL
Dragonheart 9
ASADOD
G.G. Gill. # 8647202 Long Kiss
Goodnight 4:45, 7:15, 10 * Stealing
Goodnight 4:45, 7:15, 10 * Stealing Beauty®The Truth About Cats and Dogs®Trainspotting ®The Mirror Has
Two Faces 5, 7:30, 10 G.G. ORI 1-3
T/11223 Sleepers 7, 9:45 * Daylight
Triting Steepers 7, 9:45 * Daylight
Wives Club 5, 7:30, 10 RAV
CHEN Ransom 5, 7:15, 9:45 * Breaking the Waves 7, 9:45 * Evita 4:30, 7:15, 9:45 * Things To Do In Derwer®Disbolique ®That Thing You Do
5, 7:30, 9:45

Derwer®Disbolique ®That Thing You Do
5,7:30,9:45
ASHKELON
G.G. Gil. # 729977 First Wives Cauls
G.G. Gil. # 729977 First Wives Cauls
Daylight ® Trainsporting®Surviving
Pleasso 5,7:30,10 * Sieepers 7,8:45
RAV CHEN Long Kiss Goodnight®The Truth About Cats and Dogs 5,7:30,9:45
* The Mirror Has Two Feces 4:45,7:15, 9:45 * Ransom 5,7:15,9:45 * Lone Star 7:15,9:45 * Jingle An the Way 5
BAT YAM
RAV CHEN Long Kiss Goodnight 5,7:30,9:45 * The Mirror Has Two Feces
4:45,7:15,9:45 * Daylight 5,7:30,9:45
* Rensom 5,7:15,9:45 * First Wives

Ctub 5, 7:30, 9:45 * The Truth About Cats And Dogs 5, 7:30, 9:45 * Sleepers 4,7,9:45
BEERSHEBA
G.G. Gil. Gilmmer Man • Dragonheart•
5. Ci.C. Call. Gillmaner Near & Drayonnesses
Trainspotting @Mission impossible 5, 7:30, 10 G.G. ORI Daylight @Surviving Picasso @First Wives Club 5,7:30, 10 *
Sleepers 7, 10 RAV-NEGEV 1-4 *
235278 Ransom 5, 7:15, 9:45 * Long Kiss Goodnight 5, 7:30, 9:45 * Breaking
the Waves 7, 9:45 * Evita 4:30, 7:15, 9:45 the Waves 7, 9:45 * Evilal
9:45
HADERA
LEV Ransom 7:30, 10 * Steepers@Lone Star 7:930 * Emma 7:30, 10
HERZLIYA COLONY Lone Star
Evita 5, 7:45, 10:15
Mirror Has Two Faces 7:30, 10 STAR
589068 The First Wives Club 7:30, 10
* Steepers 7:15, 9:45 * Ransom 7:30, 10

589068 The First Wives Citto 7:30, 10

* Sleepers 7:15, 9:45 * Ransom 7:30, 10

KARMIEL
CINEMA Diabolique • Ransom • Glimmer Man 7, 9:30

KFAR SAVA
G.G. Gill #7677370 First Wives
Club®Hansom 5, 7:30, 10 * Sleepers
4:30, 7:15, 10 * Breaking the Waves
4:15, 7, 9:45 * Jane Eyre®Secrets and Lies 4:30, 7:15, 10

KIRYAT BIALIK
G.G. Gill Sleepers 7, 9:30 * Long Kiss
Goodnight 7, 9:30 * The Mirror Has Two Faces®The Truth About Cats and Dogs
7, 9:30 * Daylight®The First Wives Club®Lane Byre 4:45, 7, 9:30 * Glimmer
Man 7, 9:30 * Dragonheart 4:45

KIRYAT SHIMONA
G.G. Gill Ransom®Stealing Beauty®The Mirror Has Two Faces 4:30, 7, 9:30

LOD

STAR Diabolique®Daylight 7:30, 10; *

Kingoln 10 * Long Kiss Goodnight 7:30

UPPER NAZARETH
G.G. Gill First Wives Club ®Diabolique ® Daylight ®The Mirror Has Two Faces ®Stealing Beauty 4:30, 7, 9:30 *

Ransom®Sleepers 4:30, 7:15, 10

NETSNYA
G.G. Gill 1-4 * 404729 Daylight ®
Surviving Picasso ® First Wives Club 5, 7:30, 10 * Sleepers 7:15, 10

NETANYA
G.G. Gill 1-5 * 628452
Daylight®Stealing Beauty®First Wives
Club®Lane Byre 5, 7:30, 10 * Sleepers
Club®Lane Byre 5, 7:30, 10 * Sleepers
Club®Lane Byre 5, 7:30, 10 * Sleepers
Club®Lane Byre 5, 7:30, 9:45 * Evita

Goodnight 5, 7:30, 9:45 * Evita

Goodnight 5, 7:30, 9:45 * Evita

Bound ### Hunchbeck of Notre Dame (Hebrew dislog) 7, 9:30

OR YEHUDA
G.G. Gil. 1-4 Daylight@Steating
Beauty@The Mirror Has Two Faces 5, 7:30, 10 * Skeepers 7:15, 10

PETAH TIKVA
G.G. HECHAL Ransom 5, 7:30, 10 *
Long Kiss Goodnight 4:30, 7:15, 10

Daylight 5, 10 G.G. RAM 1-3  934

Emma © Bound © Diabolique 7:30

SIRKIN The Mirror Has Two Faces®

Wives Club@The Truth About Cats

Dogs@Dragonheat 5, 7:30, 10 * Sec and Lies@Sleepers 4:30, 7:15, 10

RAYANANA

4:30, 7:15, 9:45 * Matilda@Homeware Bound #@The Hunchbeck of Notre Dame

Wrives Club@The Truth About Cats Dogs@Dragonheert 5, 7:30, 10 ± Sec and Lles@Sleepers 4:30, 7:15, 10
RA'ANANA
CIN-MOFET
La Cerremonle8:30
PARIK Secrets and Lles 4:45, 7:15, 10 ±
Ransom 4:45, 7:15, 10 ± Rirst Wrives
Club@Evide 4:45, 7:15, 10 ± Sleepers 10
± The Mirror Has Two Paces 7:15
RAMAT GAN
RAV-GAN 1-4 ± 6:197121 Evita 4:30, 7:15, 9:45 ± Sleepers 7, 9:45 ± The Mirror Has Two Paces 4:45, 7:15, 9:45 ±
The First Wrives Club 5, 7:30, 9:45 RAVThe First Wrives Club 5, 7:30, 9:45 RAVThe First Wrives Club 5, 7:30, 9:45 RAVTHASHARON
Breaking the Waves 7, 10
REHOVOT
CHEN Jane Eyre 7:30, 10 ± Breaking the Waves 7, 9:45 ± Sleepers 7, 9:45 ±
Secrets and Lles 7, 9:45 ± RAV MOR
Diabolique@Long Klss Goodnight @First
Wrives Club 5, 7:30, 9:45 ± Ransom 5,
7:15, 9:45 ± The Mirror Has Two Paces
4:45, 7:15, 9:45 ± Evita 4:30, 7:15, 9:45
RISHON LEZION
GAL 1-5 = 96:19669
Trainsporting
GTwister@Mission impossible 7:30, 10
GIL 1-3 Sleepers 7:15, 10 ± First Wrives Club 5, 7:30, 10 ± Secrets and Lles 8:45, 9:45 ±
Dragonheart 4:45
RAV CHEN
Ransom@Long Kiss Goodnight 6, 7:15,
9:45 ± The Mirror Has Two Faces 4:45,
7:15, 9:45 ± Evita 4:30, 7:15, 9:45 ±
Dragonheart 4:45
RAV CHEN
Ransom@Long Kiss Goodnight 5, 7:15,
9:45 ± The Mirror Has Two Faces 4:45,
7:15, 9:46 ± Evita 4:30, 7:15, 9:45 ±
Ransom@Long Kiss Goodnight 5, 7:15,
9:45 ± The Mirror Has Two Faces 4:45,
7:15, 9:46 ± Evita 4:30, 7:15, 9:45 ±
Ransom@Long Kiss Goodnight 5, 7:15,
9:45 ± The Mirror Has Two Faces 4:45,
7:15, 9:46 ± Evita 4:30, 7:15, 9:45 ±
Ransom@Long Kiss Goodnight 5, 7:15,
9:45 ± The Mirror Has Two Faces 4:45,
7:15, 9:45 ± Evita 4:30, 7:15, 9:45 ±
Ransom@Long Kiss Goodnight 5, 7:15,
9:45 ± The Mirror Has Two Faces 4:45,
7:15, 9:45 ± Evita 4:30, 7:15, 9:45 ±
Ransom@Long Kiss Goodnight 5, 7:15,
9:45 ± The Mirror Has Two Faces 4:45,
7:15, 9:45 ± Evita 4:30, 7:15, 9:45 ±
Ransom@Long Kiss Goodnight 5, 7:15,
9:45 ± The Mirror Has Two Faces 4:45,
7:15, 9:45 ± Evita 4:30, 7:15, 9:45 ±
Ransom@Long Kiss Goodnight 5,
Ransom@Long Kiss Goodnight 5,
Ransom@Long Kiss Goodnigh

General Assistance and Where To Go listings now appear on Page 9.

Council okays Ben-Gurion 2000 plan

By HAIM SHAPIRO

The National Planning and Building Council (NPBC) yesterday approved the overall plans for Ben-Gunon 2000, the expanded Ben-Gurion Airport. slated to replace Israel's present international terminal and handle over double the present number of

According to Moui Debi, director of the Airports Authority, the NPBC approval was not the final bureaucratic step before the terminal can be built. but it was the major hurdle which had to be passed before the builders could get the green light. Debisaid that within two months he expected the government to approve the overall plans, after which the NPBC would have to approve the specific plans for the terminal, slated to cost some $850

This schedule, Debi said, would mean that the new terminal could open by the summer of 2000. The present terminal, planned to accommodate some four million passengers a year, is presently handling seven million a year, while the new terminal is to initially be equipped to deal with 12 million. We hope to begin work this summer and we should be completing the job within three years."

Debi said. The first part of the project, an Airline Administration spokesperson said, would be to divert the Ayalon riverbed, a job that could only be undertaken after the end of the rainy season. In December, the High Court of Justice rejected a petition claiming that the work on the Ayalon was

Work on the riverbed had been delayed by a temporary injunction imposed by the court, following the petition from residents of some 20 nearby communities, the Society for the Protection of Nature in Israel and the Israel Union for Environmental Defense. The coalition had tried to promote an alternative plan to develop Netavim in the Negev as an international airYossi Sarid, had opposed the Ben-Gurion 2000 plans and promoted the Netavim alternative, present Environment Minister Rafael Eitan has favored Ben-Gurion 2000.

Sarid (Meretz) described the approval of the project as a "mistake which is likely to make the lives of tens of thousands of citizens miserable."

He said the noise from the expanded airport "will make their lives unbearable night and day." He criticized the decision to concentrate all the country's air traffic in one airport and said only a backward country prefers business and tourism interests over environmental interests.

In a statement issued yesterday by the Interior Ministry, the NPBC stressed that it had ameliorated the plans. The Airports Authority is to deal with compensation claims, a task normally undertaken by local authorities, it said, and added that the plao as approved answers environmental concerns. A public commission, headed by the ministry, is to oversee

While the previous environment minister, MK environmental factors. A judge is to determine the rights of communities to acoustic protection installa-

> The NPBC recommended limiting night flights, and sanctions for excessive noise. It also called for a rail connection with the airport and urged the Airports Authority to compensate affected communities by undertaking public projects and erecting public buildings.

The NPBC said that it regarded Ben-Gurion 2000 as related to the development of a second international airport in the south, and called for plans for such an airport to be submitted within 18 months. All the members of the board except for the SPNI representative voted to approve the plans.

Rishon Lezion Mayor Meir Nitzan blasted the decision, saying, "It's too bad that nobody bas the courage to cancel this plan. We'll continue to fight to insure that the residents' quality of life will not be damaged by this grandiose, outdated project." Liat Collins contributed to this report.

Panel formed to probe high wages in public sector

By EVELYN GORDOR and DAVID RUDGE

Knesset Finance Committee demanded yesterday that the Treasury and the Interior Ministry get back to it within a month with concrete proposals on how to prevent the payment of excess wages in the public sector. The committee was discussing the report by Yossi Kuchik, head of the Treasury's wage division. on public-sector wages for 1995. This report found excess salary payments in some 62 percent of the bodies it examined. Most of the excess payments are to senior personnel.

At the end of the meeting, comminee chairman Avraham Ravitz (United Torah Judaism) suggested that Kuchik set up a committee consisting of himself, the director-general of the Interior Ministry and the director-general of the Government Companies Authority to come up with ways to enforce public-sector wage limits. This committee should report back to the Finance Committee within a month. Ravitz said.

Kuchik agreed to this proposal. noting that there are several possible ways to punish excess wage payments if a functioning enforcement mechanism is put in place. These include firing senior officials who approve excess wage payments, giving company comp-trollers special powers to enforce mented.

wage limits, creating special con-trol centers in the various public bodies involved, requiring all wage agreements drawn up by the local authorities to be approved by the Treasury's wage division, filing disciplinary charges against violators or reducing funding to bodies that pay excess wages, he

if this three-person committee does not come up with answers, Ravitz added, the Finance Committee will be forced to begin work on four private member's bills to mandate maximum wages in the public sector. Prime Minister Netanyahu also criticized bloated salaries of civil servants and reiterated his call to MKs and ministers to waive wage increases this Netanyahu, who spoke to reporters during a visit to the Haifa area yesterday, said the MKs should be setting an example to the public in light of this year's budget cuts.

'li's not clear whether the Knesset's decision applies to ministers, but if it does then 1 demand that it be cancelled in my case and if it can't be. I have already said I would donate it to the JNF," Netanyahu said. "There's no place for this rise. not this year, not now nor in the next six months. We should set an example, I will also try to ensure in six months time that this decision will not be imple-

Rabbinate demands only kosher food on flights from Israel

By HAIM SHAPIRO

The Chief Rabbinate has sent a letter to the foreign airlines serv-ing Israel asking that the airlines serve only kosher food on their flights from Israel.

"Recently, I have had many enquiries from Israel and abroad

ter sent by Rabbi Levi Bistritsky. head of the Chief Rabbinate's kashrut division, to virtually all the foreign airlines.

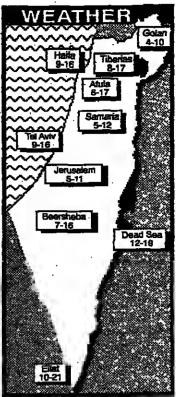

According to Bistritsky, passen-gers who want kosher food know about the kashrut of the food your airline serves on its flights from Ben Gurion Airport." said the letto order it on flights departing from "the Jewish State in the era of the year 2000."

If the airlines continue to serve non-kosher food, he said, they must indicate, in several languages, that the food is not

In reaction, Eli Messer, Israel manager for Austrian Airlines, said that every passenger can get any food he wants including kosher food and food suitable for Hindus. "We cannot force them to eat kosher food." Messer said.

Somer time

AROUND THE WORLD

Winning cards and numbers

In yesterday's daily Chance drawing, the winning cards were the jack of spades, the queen of hearts, the queen of diamonds, and the seven of clubs.

In last night's weekly Lotto drawing, the winning numbers were 3, 8, 30, 32, 48 and 49 and the additional number was 21.

Rubinstein condemns State Attorney's retrial requirements

MK and law professor Amnon Rubinstein vesterday called the decision by the State Attorney's Office not to offer a retrial to convicted murilerer Amos Baranes "scandalous, completely unacceptable and a stain on the Israeli justice system." The State Attorney's Office informed the Supreme Court president that there was no reason for a retrial for Baranes, convicted of murdering soldier Rahel Heller some 21 years ago and sentenced to life imprisonment.

0

W. Harry

4.00

The Supreme Court had rejected Baranes's appeal of his conviction but he has always insisted he is innocent. After serving 10 years he was pardoned and released but he has continued his fight for a complete acquittal.

About six months ago, Baranes asked Supreme Court President Justice Aharon Barak for a retrial and included in his request the opinions of senior pathologists and psychiatrists who said Heller was the victim of a serial killer responsible for the deaths of seven young women in the country, including Hadas Kedmi. (Itim)

Generations of giving

At a gathering of Soldiers Welfare Association volunteers yesterday, the oldest active volunteer, Avraham Kirschenbaum, 90, met up with the youngest, Rachel Sharhabani.

Sharansky salutes Sakharov, pushes for increase in trade

by ABRAHAM RABIMOVICH

MOSCOW - In a soft Moscow snowfall. Natan Sharansky stood silent yesterday beside the grave of the man who showed him that not even the most repressive regime can prevent a man from being true to himself.

there was another way." Sharansky said of the nuclear scientist who led the Russian human rights movement. "He developed the hydrogen bomb because he thought it would bring stability. When he saw that it dion't he invented a new

"Andre Sakharov showed us, weapon - truth. It was much more powerful and no regime could stand against it. Sharansky noted that he had organized press conferences for Sakharov and said the latter had helped the Jewish emigration movement. The minister of trade's second day in Moscow was devoted largely to meeting with Russian officials, including Economics Minister Yvgeny Yassin and meetings with the press. On Monday night he had appeared live on Russia's most popular TV interview program, most television channels pers only gave him modest cover-Addressing a conclave of Russian and Israeli industrialists.

Sharansky said that the trade potential between the countries had barely been exploited despite a dramatic increase in the last three years. The large pool of Russian speakers in Israel, he said, ignored bis presence and newspaprovided a sound base for joint projects.

Yassin ecboed this point at a press conference and noted Israel's widespread contacts in the West. "We in Russia can use Israel as a bridge for trade with the world," he said.

About the potential for joint projects, Deputy Prime Minister Fortov said Russian entrepreneurs would like to participate in projects like building the Tel Aviv subway and the Carmel tun-

AICA PACEMARKERS ... An attractive series of elegant trip - small and lightweight gold-plated Judaic bookmarks. never fails to delight. ... Depicting Jewish themes, Just the thing you've been holidays and symbols, bible looking for - something. stories and places in Israel. beautifully original. Each 24K gold plated Judalca Perfect gifts for any occasion for any age. Treat yourself to · Perfect gifts for that overseas

: A delightful present on its own or a companion gift with any book.

each.

including postage and handling in Israel

PageMarker™ comes gift packed on a card explaining the significance and origin of the bookmark of your choice space, too, for adding your greeting.

DECIAL OFFERS PAGENCARKERS" FOR NIS 79-11 Select from these 16 designs, a range to suit every taste, from child to adult.

Bar Kochba Coin ☐ Mazel Toy

☐ Bar Mitzvah

☐ Menorah

Chai ☐ Mezuzah Chamsah ■ Noah's Ark □ Dove of Peace ■ Shalom ☐ Jerusalem of Gold ☐ Star of David

Jonah and the Whate ☐ Tree at Life ☐ Lion of Judah ■ Western Wall

Books, The Jerusalem Post, POB B1, Jerusalem 91000. Enclosed check payable to The Jerusalem Post for Ni or credit card details as follows: ☐ Visa ☐ tsc/MCO CC No. ☐ Oiners ☐ Amex Ext. Mame Airmail orders add NIS 5 per address.

